

Dangers of Delay.

If we were allowed to look in the future and see the fatal consequences that follow a neglected cold, we would not wonder how soon we would seek a cure; but with many it is only when the summer disease has fastened its fangs upon our lungs that we awaken to the fact that we have a neglected cold. It is not diseases of the throat and lungs, bronchitis, asthma, consumption, and many other diseases of like nature, that are more than nuisances to a cold, and it is only not to have some good remedy available for this frequent complaint. One of the most efficient and safe for all diseases of the throat and lungs, is Bick's Anti-Catarrh Syrup. This medicine is composed of several medicinal herbs, which exert a most wonderful influence in curing consumption and other diseases of the lungs and chest. It promotes a free and easy action of the mucous membrane and drives the disease from the system.

It is easier to be good than great—there is less opposition. At Death's Door—Dyspepsia Conquered.—A Great Medical Triumph—Gentlemen, My medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery for Dyspepsia. My case was one of the worst of its kind. For three years I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 210 to 110 lbs. All the for I took for fifteen months previous to taking the Vegetable Discovery consisted of meat, and now entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, can eat anything with a keen appetite and feel like a new man. I have in this section known how low a people are, and I am sure that if they were as good as I am, they would not be so poor. I am not exaggerating anything, but feel glad to be able to contribute this testimonial to the benefit of my fellow sufferers. Others of its merit as a certain cure for dyspepsia. (Signed) J. Valcott, General Merchant, Watton, P. Q.

The sun shines for all, but the sleeping car porter does for his customer. Totally Deaf.—Mr. S. E. Crandell, Port Perry, writes:—I constructed a severe cold, which resulted in my becoming totally deaf in one ear and partially so in the other. After trying various remedies, and consulting several doctors, without obtaining any relief, I was advised to try Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. I was very skeptical, but I bought a little to my ear, and before one-half the bottle was used my hearing was completely restored. I have been able to hear the deafness being cured by the use of this medicine.

As a safe family medicine, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills can be given in all cases of colic, catarrh, etc.

was the altar of the Virgin. Toward it the tired grogman made his way, and on reaching it sank on the nearest chair as exhausted as he could be. He raised his eyes to the marble splendors of the shrine—of the masterpiece of old Italian art, but he had been so long in the spot by the glitter of the lamps and candles, and took no thought as to the cause of their being lighted, though he was sensible of a certain comfort in the still young, her face flushed, and long and bitter irritation, showed of feverish trouble, and her eyes, full and lustreless. GOOD NEWS from GOOD MEN.

CLERGYMEN SPEAK STRONGLY

IN FAVOR OF

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

A Medicine That Cures When Other Remedies Fail.

SUFFERING FROM RHEUMATISM

From the Gazette, Galesburg, Illinois.

A gentleman connected with the Gazette was recently conversing with Rev. Joseph Scheller who spoke of the above mentioned disease. Mr. Scheller is a clergyman of the Reformed church, and has been a prominent minister of that body for over thirty years, and has nearly all that time resided in Lena, Stephenson County, Ill. He was active in founding the Northern Illinois College at Dakota in that country and was for eight years secretary of that institution and for two years its financial agent, which position he had to abandon from causes hereafter mentioned, since which time he has taken charge of a congregation of his brethren in the town of Harlem a few miles from his residence. This worthy minister informed the reporter that for fifteen years he was the victim of that dread disease, rheumatism. The pain was so intense that he contemplated abandoning his calling.

Somewhat discouraged, but with a faint hope of recovery, he was told to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. After three months he was comparatively free from pain. Recontinued the use of the remedy at longer intervals and at the end of six months he felt that the disease was entirely eradicated. Another great benefit came to him at this time.

During this fifteen years of suffering there was added to the malady the lesser one of piles, which would itself have been a terrible affliction but for the overshadowing one of rheumatism. In the effort to cure the greater the lesser one gave way. He can now fulfill the duties of his calling without being diverted by the agony that he suffered for so many years. He can with confidence conscientiously recommend these pills to all afflicted with the diseases mentioned.

THE PASTORS WIFE.

Rev. B. F. Stratton, of Little Britain, is one of the best known ministers in the Bay of Quinte Conference, of which body he is ex-president. Wherever Mr. Stratton and his estimable wife have been stationed they have won hosts of friends among all classes for their unassuming and sincere Christian work. A few years ago Mrs. Stratton was attacked with partial paralysis and her restoration having been attributed to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a reporter of the Napanee Beaver was sent to Selby, where they resided, to interview her.

In reply to the reporter's question Mrs. Stratton said she was perfectly willing to give her experience that these pills had been so beneficially to her. Mrs. Stratton said that before moving to Selby she had been greatly troubled by a disease coming over her side and arms (partial paralysis) which, when she moved, felt as though hundreds of needles were sticking in the flesh. For over a year she had been troubled in this way, with occasionally a dizzy spell. She was becoming emaciated and easily fatigued, and was unable to get sleep from this cause. The trouble seemed to be worse at night time. Mr. Stratton had become greatly alarmed at her bad state of health, and it was feared that complete paralysis had been proposed and the Ottawa Government jumps at the offer.

Certainly we do not want another four years of Hon. Elhu Davis and his pigsty.

This Yukon deal is one of the "good things" that the Hardy-Tarte alliance gives us.

The Ottawa Government is a Government of "deals," and Mr. Hardy is its Ontario representative.

Four weeks from to-day the elections of Ontario will formally give their assent to the assertion that it is time for a change.

The Yukon Railway will be laid with gold rails, and all the freight will be carried in Pullman cars. Mail and Express. The privilege of acting as porters on the first train has been awarded to several members of the Government, who will be clothed in ermine, Russian sable and seal skin.

Hand-bills have been issued calling a meeting of the people of Deseronto to-night "to consider important matters having to do with additional industries for Deseronto." The notice is signed by "E. W. Bachman, Mayor." Does this mean that Mr. Bachman takes this mode of instructing the electorate of Deseronto to vote for the Hardy Government in consideration of the $90,000 given by them in aid of his railway?

Under the heading of "Whitney's Good Tunes" the Liberal Toronto Star says: "One of the weaknesses of the Conservative party in Ontario in the past was its habit of putting up weak local candidates for the Legislature—men neither able nor fit for parliamentary honors, but who were given the hopeless nomination as reward for patient, if poor, service to the party. In this election, however, the party has followed a different course, and has put up the best material available. In nearly all the constituencies, able and popular men have been nominated, and they are making vigorous campaigns."

The junior and unreliable Grit organ of the 31st ult. says: "The INTELLIGENCER predicted that Mr. Biggar would run again; he did not. No, dear Grit, not exactly! We predicted that the 'election' would fall upon him; and it did. We also stated he was 'weakness' through the public streets."

would ensue. Knowing a young lady in Trenton, where Mr. Stratton had been previously stationed, who had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, it was determined to give them a fair trial. When Mrs. Stratton began using the pills she was very thin and her system badly run down, but after taking the pills for a time all symptoms of paralysis disappeared, and she found her health and strength renewed and her weight increased. Mrs. Stratton is about fifty years of age, and a more healthy, robust, and younger looking lady is seldom seen at that age.

In reply to the reporter's inquiry as to what Pink Pills had done for his wife, Mr. Stratton said, "Look at her, doesn't she show it?" and the reporter could not but admit the truth of the statement.

He tried all kinds of remedies, and although sometimes temporarily relieved, he gradually grew worse until in October, 1885, he was stricken with paralysis. CEMETERY COMPANY MEET Directors and Officers Elected—Outstanding Accounts to be Collected.

The adjourned annual meeting of the Belleville Cemetery Company was held yesterday afternoon in the office of A. G. Northrup, Secretary-Treasurer. The first business was the reception and adoption of the Auditors' report on the Secretary-Treasurer's books, which was most satisfactory, with the exception of the large amount due by lot holders. On motion instructions were given to place these accounts in the hands of a solicitor for collection.

The following gentlemen were elected on the Board of Directors: Messrs. A. G. Northrup, J. N. P. Thompson, J. P. Thomas, A. L. Goss, John Forin, S. A. Moore and R. T. Hamilton.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors the following officers were elected: President—J. P. Thomas. Secretary-Treasurer—A. G. Northrup. Committee on Grounds—Messrs. Moore, Goss and Pouton.

Superintendent at Grounds—Mr. A. Robertson.

Under the additional powers given to cemetery companies by a recent Act of the Legislature, it was decided to have the by-laws of the company revised as soon as possible.

Parlor Social.

A very enjoyable time was spent at the residence of Mr. Wm. Cline, front of Thurlow, on Thursday evening, January 27, when a Parlor Social was held under the auspices of the Presbyterian Church of Shannonville. The guests began to arrive shortly after six o'clock and as each load after each load drove up the house was soon filled, about one hundred and seventy-five or two hundred people being present.

In accordance with their usual custom, the ladies of the church had provided an abundance of good things to supply the wants of the guests.

Good music was provided and a number of very interesting games, which entertained all until a late hour. About twenty young people drove out from the city and reported a very pleasant evening. The proceeds amounted to about $25.

A MISSIONARY'S WORK.

One of the most melancholy features of our nineteenth century civilization is the large number of pale, thin young girls to be met with in every walk of life. Too frequently parents do not recognize that there is anything seriously wrong until at last they are forced to admit that their child is in a decline, and when treatment is taken it is often too late, and a loved one is followed to an untimely grave. A pale or waxy complexion denotes anæmia in time, by gradual stages, to an early grave. Among the symptoms denoting poverty of the blood, are severe headaches, loss of appetite, dizziness, fainting spells, violent palpitation of the heart on slight exertion, etc. In this emergency Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are beyond comparison the most valuable remedy known. That the claims made on behalf of these Pills are not overated is amply borne out by the following letter from the Rev. David Forbes, missionary, Poplar Dale, Algoma, Ont.

Mr. Forbes writes:—"I feel that I would be remiss in my duty did I not write to let you know the wonderful benefit derived by a young lady here from the use of your Pink Pills. Miss Mary Martin was taken sick two years ago, and all the medical treatment she underwent proved of no avail. Visiting the family in my capacity as missionary, I saw with sorrow that unless something was done to arrest the progress of her trouble, she would not be long for this world. She was pale, almost bloodless, and subject to all the distressing symptoms which accompany anæmia and bring the victim to an early grave. I urged the parents to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They acted upon my advice, and I rejoice that they have entirely restored her health, and in the rosy cheeks of girl of today you would not recognize the invalid of a short time before. The words of her grateful mother to me were these: 'We have to thank you, Mr. Forbes, for recommending Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They have saved our daughter's life and we are most grateful that we can say, and freely give you permission to send this testimonial, in the hope that some one in similar circumstances may be benefited.'"

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.

From the Simcoe Reformer.

In the early days of Methodism in Canada the gospel was spread abroad in the land by the active exertions of the circuit riders. They were men of God, and of great strength, and on constitution and unflagging determination, to fulfil the arduous duties incumbent on one who undertook to preach salvation to his fellowmen. Many fell by the wayside, while others struggled on and prospered, and a few are to-day enjoying a ripe old age, happy in the knowledge that a lasting reward will soon be theirs. Rev. David Williams, who lives two miles north-west of Nipon, Ontario, Norfolk County, was one of these early days circuit riders. He was a man of vigorous health, and although without many advantages in the way of early education he succeeded by dint of hard work and constant study to be admitted to the ministry. For many years he had been suffering from kidney and kindred diseases. He tried all kinds of remedies, and although sometimes temporarily relieved, he gradually grew worse until in October, 1885, he was stricken with paralysis. From this he partially recovered his powers of speech, but it left him memory so poor that he could not remember the name of the person to whom he wished to speak without thinking intently for several minutes. In addition to this trouble he had intense bodily suffering; pains in the head, across the forehead, in the temples and behind the ears, across the weakness and pains in the back, hips and legs. In fact, so much did he suffer that sleep was almost an impossibility, and he fell away in weight until he weighed only 145 pounds. By this time, December 1885, he became so despondent and felt that if he did not obtain relief, he would soon bid adieu to the things of this world. On the 20th December he read of a cure in the Reformer by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and being seized with a sudden inspiration immediate good results followed their use and he has improved wonderfully during the past year. He has recovered his bodily health and strength, is comparatively free from pain, and his memory is nearly as good as it ever was. Mr. Williams says: "I can heartily endorse the many good things said of these pills in the papers, and strongly recommend them to any one suffering as I was."

A BROADMINDED DIVINE.

The Rev. Samuel P. Calhoun, D.D., is the pastor of the May Memorial church in Syracuse, N.Y., and one of the most prominent and popular men in the city. He was born in England, and received his scholastic training at St. Paul's school London, and Trinity College, Cambridge. He came to Syracuse about 1850, where he has labored ever since. We give herewith a good likeness of him and are allowed to publish a letter written by him last year to the editor of the Syracuse, N.Y., Evening News. It follows:—

Rev. Dr. Calhoun, Syracuse, N.Y.

DEAR SIR:—More than 35 years ago I wrenched my left knee, throwing it almost from its socket. Great swelling followed, and the synovial sac kept leaking from the joint.

This made me lame for years, and from time to time the knee would give out entirely, and the swelling would commence. This was always occasioned by some strain like a sudden stop. The knee gradually recovered, but always weaker than the other. About 15 years ago, the swelling commenced, this time without any wrench at all, and before long I realized that this was rheumatism settling in the weakest part of the body. The trouble came so often that I was obliged to carry an opiate in my pocket everywhere I had to go, and before long I forgot it, and as the car was damp and cold, before I reached Buffalo, my leg was swollen to twice its natural size.

I had seen the good effects that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were having in such cases, and I tried them myself with the result that I have never had a twinge or a swelling since. This was effected by taking seven or eight boxes.

I need not say that I am thankful for my recovered independence, and I may add that my knee is now far stronger than it has been for 35 years.

I gladly give you this statement.

Yours,
REV. S. P. CALHOUN.

Belleville—Geo. J. Johnson, W. H. Pon-

O-NIGHT'S MEETING.

The friends and supporters of Mayor Morrison are invited to meet him to-night at Alberta Hall, when the work of organization for the campaign will be undertaken.

Mr. Morrison, Mr. Corby, M.P., Mayor Johnson, Mr. W. B. Northrup and others will deliver short addresses, but the principal object of the evening will be to work for which he all concerned go prepared, and all are invited.

West Hastings will be redeemed, but every opponent of the Harty Government ought to aid, and have the satisfaction of sharing in the victory.

FOURSCORE AND TEN.

Mr. M. Sawyer's, J.P., Ninetieth Birthday—Sketch of His Life—An Honorable, Upright Citizen—The Oldest Methodist in the City.

Ninety years ago to-day Mr. Merrick Sawyer, J.P., was born in the town of Heath, Mass., where his family have resided for a century and a half. He is the son of Gilbert and Polly Sawyer, in whose home eleven children were born—two sons and nine daughters. Of this large family Mr. Sawyer and his brother Anthony, of Princeton, Illinois, are the only survivors.

When he had reached his majority Mr. Sawyer left the home of his childhood and for a year taught school at the mouth of the Genesee river. He had then an uncle living in Cobourg, and at his solicitation he left his native land, henceforward to be one of the best type of Canadians. For seven years he guided the feet of the youth of Cobourg in the paths of intellectual and moral development. So successful was he that the first schoolhouse built in Cobourg was erected so that his school might have room for growth. After teaching for seven years, the Bursarship of Victoria Academy (afterwards Victoria University) was proffered him and he accepted it. One of his earliest friends in Cobourg was the late Dr. Rufus Holden; their intimacy was lifelong. In 1854 Mr. Sawyer married Miss Esther Holden, a sister of Dr. Holden and the late Erasmus Holden and John Holden, of this city. Two children were born to them—the late Mrs. Mary Esther Holden, who died in 1889, and Dr. James Sawyer, who died in 1881. In 1840 the late Dr. Holden, in addition to his extensive practice as a physician, was conducting a drug business here, and finding that he needed a reliable and competent person to aid him in his store, he requested Mr. Sawyer to come to Belleville for the purpose. In the same year Mrs. Sawyer died.

Mr. Sawyer's second wife was Miss Lyon, a sister of the late Mr. H. K. Lyon, and an aunt of Mrs. Wm. Johnson. Mrs. W. Jeffers Diamond and Mrs. J. W. Butterfield, a family of three sons and one daughter were given to Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer by this union. The boys died at early ages, but happily for Mr. Sawyer, his daughter, Miss Emily, has been spared to assist her father in his business.

For nearly forty years Mr. Sawyer so conducted a drug business for himself as to be able to retire in 1880 with a competency, having earned what he esteems more than five years' salary. Mr. Sawyer's work was as good as his bond, and his drugs as pure as his life. His reputation was the synonym for probity. Though often asked to accept public office, Mr. Sawyer positively declined them, preferring to devote his leisure hours to his family, the church of his choice, and to study. Forty-five years ago he was appointed a Justice of the Peace, and was a member of the Board of Education and its Chairman in 1875, and under great pressure he was once induced to contest the mayoralty.

Mr. Sawyer's family were Congregationalists and when a lad of seventeen he united with that church. He brought with him to Cobourg his church credentials, but as he was a Methodist, he had to leave them behind. He has been a member of the church for almost three quarters of a century. To the church he has been a tower of strength; he has been a Trustee, Recording Steward, Sunday School Superintendent twice, and is still a member of the church. In these several positions he has been the personification of faithfulness.

Mr. Sawyer has never been in thought a fossil; through life he has always been a progressive man and in matters of church or state has often been ahead of the times or abreast of them.

The death of his very dear friend, Mr. Moschman, nearly a year ago, has been felt deeply by Mr. Sawyer, although the friendship was a life-long one. Mr. Sawyer was a Reformer from conviction, it is in no way marred that his friends the other credit for his honesty of purpose, and as they agreed on what was to them more essential than politics, their friendship became like that of brothers.

While loving memories are being received by our venerable and venerated citizen from numerous pious, and troops of friends with day call to express their love and devotion to him and best wishes for years of this life yet to be given to him, the bereaved also call to congratulate Mr. Sawyer on what his life has meant to this city, on the excellence of his health, and to join in the hope of all that he may be spared to us still longer.

It is time for a change in West Hastings. Go to the meeting in Alberta Hall to-night prepared to organize for the work of swinging West Hastings from the Grit side to the Conservative side in the Legislature.

The Roads are Bad.

The recent storm, with the wind that accompanied it, has left several country roads in a very bad shape. The roads running east and west are the worst. The stages have all come in however, but they report some heavy drifts. The Grand Trunk has not escaped, especially those yesterday were all delayed, especially those from the east. The express due here at 3 o'clock did not get in till six. The train from Lindsay did not reach Peterborough, but was expected this afternoon. A train reached here from Peterborough.

FLOOD CAUSES SUFFERING

The Water Still Rising on Both Sides of the River.

Several families are suffering to-day on the flats on the east side of the river, as a consequence of their homes being flooded with water. Slowly, but surely, the water has crept up till several streets in the district mentioned are inundated.

In most cases the sufferers are poor people and wholly unprepared for the emergency that has arisen. Several families woke up this morning to find their doors frozen shut, and in some cases the bottoms had to be cut off before they could be opened. We can only imagine the situation should a fire take place in this quarter.

"Can no relief be afforded?" is a question that many citizens are asking, but there seems to be only one answer—"Nothing will relieve the flood but milder weather."

The Harbor Commissioners say they can do nothing, and several Aldermen who were seen this morning are of the same opinion. One Alderman said the City should grant a sum to relieve special cases of distress caused by the flood.

On the other hand, a man who had lived all his life near the river and had a large experience in floods, says that if a channel in the form of a Y was cut, with the upper part to bring the currents in from two directions into one large channel, the anchor ice would be carried out. Would it not be well to try some means to afford relief?

We understand that several parties on Front st., whose premises are overflowed, would contribute towards the expense of the experiment.

The situation on the east side of the river is not so bad, but the danger is increasing, as the water was rising rapidly this forenoon.

"Well begun is half done." Let Mr. Morrison's supporters begin the work of the campaign well at Alberta Hall to-night.

Our Wall Paper Sale..

Is proving such a success that we are tempted to offer equally good inducements in some other lines.
When you have to pay only 10c and 15c for papers that were 25c, 30c, 35c and 50c, and see some 200 patterns to choose from, why should one put off buying until later on?

There is not much difference between the new spring papers and the papers we are offering in this sale.

It's a case of "history repeating itself." A number are buying now and laying away the goods for further use. Our 50c lines will not last very long. They have ranged as high as 50c per roll.

We warn you to see about them NOW. If you come too late and find them gone you cannot accuse us of playing the "All sold out" dodge and trying to palm off something more expensive upon you.

FROM POVERTY TO WEALTH

Former Laborer Telegraphs his Wife to Come and Help him spend $50,000.

Poverty changed to wealth and mourning to joy when Mrs. George Turner, of Cedar Falls, Ia., received a despatch from her husband, whom she had long supposed dead, announcing his arrival in Seattle with $50,000 in Klondike gold. Mr. Turner, who he would be some time engaged in handling here, was interested. For some years Mr. and Mrs. Turner resided in Cedar Falls, where he was engaged as a day laborer. On the first reports of the discovery of gold Turner sold what little property he possessed in order to outfit for a Klondike expedition, his wife going to live with her parents, who also dwelt in poverty.

BRONSON RETIRES.
The Minister From Ottawa Too Ill to Stay in Politics.

Mr. F. H. Bronson, Minister without portfolio in the Ontario Cabinet, who represented Ottawa in the late Legislature, has finally decided not to be a candidate again. His ill health, and his absolute retirement from politics. Although it has been no secret that Mr. Bronson's health would not warrant his becoming a candidate, the members of the Ontario Government, fearing the loss of Ottawa, have been urging him to disregard his physician's advice. He will be a senator among the local Liberals for the nomination, and in the meanwhile the Conservatives have been supporting them.

OBITUARY.
EDMUND DRACUP.
An old resident, in the person of Edmund Dracup, of the Town of Rawdon, passed away on Friday, Jan. 28th, after a lingering illness. About four or five years ago Mr. Dracup became troubled with heart disease, which gradually grew worse and finally terminated in his death on the above date. About thirty-seven years ago Mr. Dracup was married to Miss Lena Vandervoort, daughter of the late Francis Vandervoort. The result of this union was three sons, namely: Walter, Charles and Selbourne; also one daughter, Mrs. B. Chisholm, of Sidney. Mr. Dracup was what might be termed a self-made man. He settled in Rawdon in 1864, and after a number of years, and with his untiring perseverance, coupled with the assistance of his noble wife, succeeded in accumulating considerable property. He was unobtrusive in disposition and was universally respected.

In politics he was a Conservative, in religion a Methodist, of which church he was a member for a number of years, and he died leaving a bright testimony for those who are left to mourn his loss. Mr. Dracup was in his sixtieth year, and his demise marks the first vacancy in the family who mourn the loss of a devoted husband and kind father.

MRS. JOSEPH CRAIG.
The sad intelligence reached the city today that Mrs. Joseph Craig, upon whom an operation was performed at Toronto a few days ago, had died this morning. Mrs. Craig was the widow of the late Joseph Craig, a special Excise Officer, who died suddenly about six years ago. The family had lived in Belleville some fifteen years.

Mrs. Craig's maiden name was Mrs. A. P. T. Elder, Publisher, 275 Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill. The editor of the 14th paper in "The Light of the World," as a book of great merit.

Let those Conservatives who desire to learn all about registration of voters attend to-night's meeting at Alberta Hall.

LATE MAYOR TEMPLETON

Particulars of his Death—The Obsequies—A Journalist's Tribute.

The following matter has been unavoidably crowded out for some time:—Particulars of our esteemed fellow townsman's tragical death and funeral have been received, from which we extract the following:—On Saturday morning, Jan. 15th, at the time he usually came to his office, feeling unwell and did not get up. A physician was then sent for and to him Mr. Templeton came, and of a sudden fell in his bed. The doctor on learning that he had not had any sleep for five nights administered a sleeping potion, which took four doses to have any effect, and sleep did not come until 5:30. From that time he never regained consciousness, and shortly after two o'clock on Sunday morning he breathed his last. On every face encountered when the intelligence spread around was the same tense expression of grief and deep sympathy with the afflicted family who have lost a devoted husband and affectionate father. He was in every respect a good and patriotic citizen. In him Vancouver had a chief magistrate who, during his term of office, accomplished much good and who will be kindly remembered by all who knew him. The funeral took place on January 16th, and was the largest ever seen in the province. All public offices and stores were closed, flags on all the buildings and vessels in the harbor hoisted at half mast and the public schools were closed all day. The funeral cortege was in the following order:—

Second Battalion Band.
Firemen.
Elders of L. O. L.
Other Orangemen.
Scots of the Empire.
Undertaker and Officiating Clergyman, Heston.

Private Carriages, over 30.
Carriages with Members of Family.
Other Chief Mourners.
Employees of Deceased.
Major and Aldermen, with the representatives of all the city organizations.

Civic Officials.
Licensing Commissioners.
Board of School Trustees.
Consular Representatives.

The school children, in charge of their teachers, were lined on the two sides of the street, and as the hearse moved by they fell in on either side and marched to the city limits, where they halted, faced inwards and remained in a respectful attitude until the procession passed through.

Long before the heart-teaching strains of the dead march announced that the cortege was approaching the streets were lined with people all along the route the funeral was to take, who, by their silence showed their esteem for the deceased and sympathy for the bereaved family.

Accompanied with an expressed wish of deceased friends to follow, the cortege was numerous. At the request of the widow the following of those sent were placed on the hearse: From the family; the City Mayor, George S. Grant, and the following: D. T. Macdonell, G. R. Maxwell, M. P., and the West End School teachers, the latter being the school of which, as a trustee, deceased had special charge. The City held in a striking manner of the deep grief felt over the passing away of its late Chief Magistrate and of the love in which his memory was cherished. A busy life was ended an energetic personality, who made his presence felt in any community or undertaking he was connected with, was thus laid to his last long sleep.

The Vancouver Mayor of the 17th Jan. pays the following tribute to the memory of our erstwhile fellow townsman William Templeton. It does justice to the deceased and is a credit to the writer, who has just opposed him in the majority:—

With the passing away of Mr. William Templeton another of the Chief Magistrates of this city has gone to the silent land. Only two remain, Mr. R. A. Anderson and Mr. Henry Collins, for we can hardly imagine the present Mayor, who only assumed office to-day. In the case of him who now lies cold in death at his residence in this city nothing more unexpected could have occurred. He seemed to be in the best of health on Friday last and, though defeated, had a kind word to say to those opponents who had carried on the campaign in an honorable manner, nor did his defeat seem to interfere at all with his good spirits. And on Sunday the end for him had come! It is altogether sad and the city has not yet recovered from the shock. On every face encountered when the intelligence spread around was the same tense expression of grief and deep sympathy with the afflicted family who have lost a devoted husband and affectionate father. Mr. Templeton, during his incumbency of the Mayor's chair, performed his duties, in so far as was determined by the law, faithfully and left behind him a creditable record. At the last election this journal opposed him, but we have no regret in acknowledging that Mr. Templeton took no offence and declared afterwards that we had treated him fairly. We had not been able, during the contests which Mr. David Oppenheimer, now resting in God's Acre, took part, to see eye to eye with him in municipal affairs, though during the Federal contest we fought together and won. He was a born organizer and the fidelity with which he labored on behalf of the candidate whose cause he espoused in a large measure gained a triumph. Personally he was a very genial man who liked to crack a joke and could appreciate the joys as well as the sorrows of human existence. He was in every respect a good and patriotic citizen. He took great interest in the advancement of Vancouver and on frequent occasions showed how loyal he was to the city which at last honored him with its confidence. None deplore his loss more than those who recently opposed him on grounds which must be regarded as honorable—from their point of view—and the grand Reconciliation of Kipling keeps ringing in their ears, telling how after all glories pass away as the minutes fade into eternity. The heart of the people goes out in loving sympathy to Mrs. Templeton and her children in this dark hour when they mourn their beloved dead. These lines written by Mrs. Barbauld in the last century seem to be appropriate at this sorrowful time:—

Life we've been long together,
Through gladness and through cloudy weather;
Thou hast to part with friends are dear;
Partings 'twixt cost a sigh, a tear;
Then steal away, give little warning,
And leave the heart to its own gloom.
Say not "Good night," but in some brighter clime Bid me "Good morning."

Coughs, colds, pneumonia and fevers may be prevented by keeping the blood pure and the system toned up with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No matter how brilliant the announcement, no matter how original or unique the plan, unless it brings people to the store it is not successful advertising.

READY FOR THE FRAY.

Conservatives of the Bay District Organize for the Fight.

Brilliant Meeting on Behalf of Mayor Morrison—Old-Time Enthusiasm Aroused—A District Council—Prospects All That Could be Desired.

The Conservatives of Belleville have fought many brilliant battles on behalf of their principles, but never have they been in better fighting trim than they now are, under the leadership of their chosen chief, Mr. Henry Corby, M.P., who is personally conducting the campaign on behalf of Mr. M. B. Morrison, Trenton's favorite public man, who the Conservative candidate for the Legislature in West Hastings.

Last night's meeting of the electors of Belleville, for the purpose of organization, was, in spite of the furious blizzard which raged for upwards of an hour, the most largely attended, the most enthusiastic, yet withal the most business-like organization meeting with which a campaign was ever opened in Belleville. The old veterans of many campaigns and the young recruits were there, and all alike were full of energy and determination in support of the good cause, and their hearty cheers evidenced their enthusiasm.

Ex-Mayor Curtis Bogart, President of the West Hastings Liberal-Conservative Association, presided with his usual ability, and after a few remarks from him to the purpose, the following organization was effected:

Chairman of Central Committee—Ald. Jas. H. Strain.

CHAIRMAN OF WARDS.
Foster Ward—E. Naylor.
Samson Ward—W. A. Hungerford.
Ketcheson Ward—W. Alford.

Baldwin Ward—John McKeown.
Bleeker Ward—Dr. Tracy.
Coleman Ward—Wm. Carrow.

Morney Ward—Thos. Thompson, Wm. Black, R. H. Ketcheson.

Mr. John Stokes, the Conservative candidate in East Hastings, then made a few practical remarks, stating that his own prospects were highly encouraging and his confidence in the success of the party was unshaken.

Mrs. W. P. Hudson, ex-M.P.P., A. T. Patric and P. O'Rourke, of Trenton, followed in brief but pointed addresses.

Mr. Morrison was then called upon, and on rising was greeted with great enthusiasm, the audience rising and cheering him enthusiastically for several minutes.

He expressed his thanks for the hearty reception given him, and said he would not discuss the questions of the day, but he had chosen to follow his own views and opinions. If elected, he would show the people that he was a Reformer, but he had chosen to follow his own views and opinions.

He then spoke of the importance of the party, and said that he was a Reformer, but he had chosen to follow his own views and opinions.

His speech was well received, and he was greeted with great enthusiasm, the audience rising and cheering him enthusiastically for several minutes.

Mr. Porter, Ponton's solicitor, says there is no least foundation for the report. The rumor evidently originated in the editorial room of the yellow journal referred to.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

A Well-known Commercial Traveller Cuts His Throat.

A week ago today Lewis Melidow, a well-known commercial traveller, representing Greenhalgh & Co., Montreal, arrived in Port Hope and put up at the Queen's hotel. He has remained there till the present, but acted strangely all the week. He has been writing a voluminous letter to his wife and this he has addressed to her last evening.

During last night he deliberately attempted to end his life by cutting his throat. He only succeeded, however, in severing his wind pipe and his chances of recovery are said to be good.

Melidow is well-known in this city, as he travelled on this route for many years. He is a man about fifty years of age.

It is his privilege to exercise the right of a man to vote. Exercise that right and show yourself a man and a citizen.

OBITUARY.

HARRIS DAVIS HOWELL.

At an early hour this morning another of the old residents of the city passed away in the person of Mr. Harris D. Howell, the late Hector Howell, at her home on Hillside st. She had been ill for several weeks and her demise had been looked for for several days.

Deceased was born in Ameliasburg 71 years ago, and was a daughter of the late John Mason. She is the last of the family. She was married to her present husband, Hector Howell, who pre-deceased her about two and a half years. They had no children.

She had lived in the city twenty five years and was well and favorably known. She was a devout member of the Methodist church.

Military Notes.

Capt. McGuinness will lecture at the armories this evening on "Outposts and Night Enterprises."

Mr. R. J. B. Crombie, of the Bank of Montreal, has presented the officers of the 10th with a beautifully framed picture of the Battle of Quebec. The picture is a reproduction of the original painting by the late Col. Campbell and is a most valuable addition to the collection of the Battalion.

The English Artillery team, of Sherburne, which will visit Canada next summer, will be at Deseronto during the annual camp there. They will also visit Halifax, Montreal, Ottawa and Niagara.

Still Rising.

The water is still rising, but apparently is devoting its attention to the property on the east side of the river. If it goes a foot today south of Dundas st. and all the houses along South Front st. are nearly full. The fire in the city buildings were not today, and several other fires were along Front st. are cold.

An attempt was made yesterday afternoon to make an outlet in the mouth of the river, but after a large hole had been dug the work was abandoned, as the anchor ice was packed tightly right down to the bottom.

Broke His Leg.

Hugh Corbett, an old man living on Allison st. and employed as a corporation laborer, fell on the walk between Bridge st. church and Hotel Quebec about 10 o'clock this afternoon and broke one of his legs. He was conveyed to his home, where Dr. McQuinn saw him, and will also visit the old man in doing so as well as the nearest under the circumstances.

DEADLY COAL GAS.

A Fourth is Still Unconscious and May Die—Charcoal Burned in a Stove Without a Pipe—Took Place at John Milligan's Home.

(Special to the INTELLIGENCER.)

MADOC, Feb. 4.

JOHN MILLIGAN, aged 21,

LEE MILLIGAN, aged 15,

ETHEL BAKER, aged 13, were suffocated by gas from a charcoal fire early this morning.

Mrs. Milligan is still unconscious from effects of the same.

Milligan was caretaker of the Model School and was in the habit of carrying live coals from the furnace in the evenings and placing them in an old stove in one of the bedrooms in his home.

There was no pipe connecting the stove with the chimney, consequently the fumes would remain in the room.

Last night, instead of bringing hot coals from the school, they substituted charcoal, resulting in the death of three children and possibly the mother.

Each man knows some one else who ought to register. See that all such are registered.

Boy Reefer Jackets.

This is the time of the year that the small boy enjoys himself. A little cold or a little storm does not interfere with his outdoor pleasure. Give him lots of room and the right clothing and let him go. The Oak Hall can supply you with the necessary clothing at very low prices. We have a very fine line of pea-jackets running in price from $2 to $5. This is what the boy needs for outdoor sport.

PICTON WON IT.

Belleville Will Lose the Corby Cup for This Year.

The Pictou hockey team has composed of a husky lot of fellows, as was demonstrated to a ninety in their game with the local team last evening. To begin with, Belleville has a good team, but they have neither the moral nor financial support of the citizens to any degree, and without these no team can hope to stand up against teams that enjoy them and other advantages. Just think of it! Seventy-five people from the little town on the peninsula journeyed all the way to Belleville, some driving through a blinding snow storm, to cheer their team to victory, and the contingent formed the greater part of the audience to witness the game.

The ice was good, but the snow storm made passing rather difficult, especially in the first half, but the game was fast and clean.

In the first half honors were even, each team getting a goal. In the second half shortly after play began Gorman and Kelso and Gilbert scored the first goal after half time, and that finished the local team's hopes. Pictou played excellently, showing powers and put up a game that fairly dazzled the audience, scoring five goals in succession. The game was a 5 to 2 in favor of the visitors.

The teams were as follows:

Pictou: Depard, goal; Fyrie, point; Hepburn, cover point; Barker, Gilbert, Harrison and Wright, forwards.

Belleville: Jamieson, goal; Hulme, point; Matheson, cover point; Gorman, McGuire, Kelso and Dubin, forwards.

It's Sullivan, of Pictou, referred the game impartially.

Of the Pictou team Harrison is easily the star and did some brilliant work in the last half. Gilbert and Wright played a good game. Depard is a stone wall in goal.

Kelso, as usual, put up a strong game and was the backbone of the team. Fyrie is a fast skater and an excellent stick handler, but is handicapped by being unable to shoot. Matheson played a strong game at cover.

There was a great jubilation among the visitors when the game was finished and they made the welkin ring with cheers and shouts of horse and bugles.

Pictou deserves its success and the local team has no fault to find with the result. It is a pity that the same old story of Corby Cup, as the game is to play will not affect their standing.

Queen vs. Green.

On Wednesday, 19th ult., Wm. Green was arrested and brought before Magistrate Welch, Springfield, charged with committing a criminal assault on John J. Mack, by hitting of his ear. The case was dismissed and Green discharged. W. J. Brown, Magistrate, appeared for the prisoner. Mack was then arrested on a similar charge, and on the 27th ult. was taken to Belleville. Here Mack was fined $35 and costs and Green $30 and costs. No one appeared for either on the latter trial.

MRS. MITCHELL'S $500.

She Has Not Recovered It Yet and Has Caused a Writ to be Issued.

It will be remembered that about $500 in cash was found among the effects of Mrs. Mitchell when they were seized for rent in December last. Mrs. Mitchell has not yet recovered her money and has instituted proceedings to get it.

It appears when the money was found by the bailiffs it was handed over to Mr. J. P. Thompson, who was acting for the McAnnaman estate, and who caused the seizure to be made. Mrs. Mitchell demanded her money from Mr. Thompson, but he declined to pay it over until the rent account was straightened out.

Mrs. Mitchell then engaged O. E. Lyons and instructed him to get the money for her. Mr. Lyons went to Mr. Thompson and they agreed to deposit $500 of the amount with Mr. U. E. Thompson, banker, retaining $100 for expenses. Mrs. Mitchell was as bad off as ever and vainly endeavored to get Mr. Lyons to secure her cash.

Failing in this, she engaged E. Guss Porter to sue her for the balance of the whole transaction is that a writ has been issued against Mr. Lyons for the recovery of the $500.

Mr. Lyons says he is willing to pay over the money as soon as he gets his bill of costs.

In the meantime Mrs. Mitchell is suffering for the want of her hard-earned dollars and says if it is the last back she will keep clear of legal proceedings in future.

WILL TOM MANN SUCCEED

A New Workers' Union and Entire Lines to Be Formed.

London, Feb. 4.—The recent defeat of the official trade unions has caused Tom Mann, the well-known labor leader, to back by certain organizations to issue a manifesto urging the formation of a new workers' union. This union is intended to be essentially political, we'll say industrial, because it is shown that trade unionism without political action is not equal to the service of the labor problem. The aim of the organization is to organize the bulk of the country's workers, of whom barely one-fifth are unionized in the existing unions, and to con-classes workers, skilled and unskilled, and hand workers, and the organization to be used on every occasion to advance the interests of the members by political effort until the revolution shall supersede.

A preliminary conference that was last evening undid the scheme.

Grain Dealers Mobbed.

London, Feb. 4.—A special dispatch from Rome says that some of the decisions on the corn exchange of the Province of Foggia, who accepted no more, were violently attacked by the members for attempting to corner the market. The troops, it is added, had to clear the exchange. The despatch adds that there were bread riots at Castel-Marone today and that the troops frequently attacked the mobs.

SIGNIFICANT.

IRISH CATHOLIC LIBERALS ORGANIZING.

Scarcely a year and a half of Rouge-Grit rule has passed, ere the different factions and sections of the party show dissatisfaction, and grumble. The leaves and fishes do not fall sufficiently into their maws, hence the wall of despair is sent forth in tones which it is hoped will reach the round table in the Council Chamber at Ottawa. It succeeded, in the case of the advanced French Rogues in Quebec. The leader of the revolt has been rewarded with a seat on the Superior Court Bench, by which his mouth is closed, and the amount which he had to pay out of the proceeds of the sale of his only property to meet election expenses been recouped by a $5,000 a year office. When such success followed a French-Rogue coup d'etat, is it any wonder that another section of the combination should attempt the same game? Not at all, hence the finding of the "Irish Catholic Liberals" organizing in order they say to enforce their rights, whatever they may be outside the general public. These gentlemen have met in Ottawa, and formed an "Edward Blake Club." A "Blake Club" would not do, they said, as it might be inferred that they, the "Irish Catholic Liberals," were admirers of the great anti-Catholic, "Sam Blake," so "Edward" became the prefix. What were our "Irish Liberal Catholic" friends thinking about when they did not select the much more Irish sounding name, "Dominion," the portion of Edward's name, of which he appears to be ashamed, as he never uses it? By that as it may, they have now an "Edward Blake Club," organized for the purpose of securing more consideration and office.

At the organization meeting, the telegraphic report says, Mr. P. O'Reilly, a leading merchant, presided. In his opening remarks, Mr. O'Reilly explained the principal object of the proposed Club, namely that Irish Catholic Liberals should receive better treatment from the present Government. In the present Privy Council, he said, there was practically only one Irish Catholic. When the Conservatives were in power, as many as four Irish Catholics were Cabinet Ministers, and this, in spite of the fact that only 10 per cent. of the Irish Catholics voted Conservative. Why did not the Liberals treat them better, and give more recognition to the 90 per cent. of Irish Catholics who voted Liberal? Such a Club as this, then, was just the thing whereby to stir up the Liberal Ministry.

Here is an unintentional tribute to the Conservative party for dealing justly with all classes of the community, irrespective of creed or nationality. Merit and worth alone guided them in their selection of men to fill offices of trust and responsibility. It has never been a part of the policy of the Conservative party to ask whether nine-tenths or one-tenth of any class of people voted for them; their

I was told that my lungs were affected, and my heart and kidneys were in a bad condition. In fact, it seemed as though every organ was out of order. I felt that something must be done and my brother advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I procured a bottle and began taking it. It proved a bottle long I felt that it was doing me good. A NIGHT OF FUN

At the Oddfellows' Popular Concert.

Meeting of the Board of Education.

Dr. Wills Home From the Klondike.

The Yukon Railway Deal in Detail.

Commons and Senate on the Matter.

A GREAT QUINTETTE.

Mizpah Lodge's Galaxy of Stars at the Carman Last Night.

The opera house was filled to the doors last night, the occasion being the concert under the auspices of Mizpah Lodge, I.O.O.F. It was a most successful affair and everybody went away delighted.

As the Chairman, Mr. R. H. Ketcheson, said in his opening remarks, they had spared no expense in getting the best artists in Canada and they were gratified to see that their efforts were appreciated. The programme was a very long one, it being just twenty-five minutes to twelve o'clock when Professor Riggs and his merry men played the National Anthem. Of course, with four comic singers on the bill, there was sure to be no dearth of amusement—and just here arose the only drawback—there was scarcely enough variety; it was one comic song after another, and though they were all really good, a ballad or an instrumental selection would have given variety and made the programme rather more enjoyable. Of the entertainers themselves it is only possible to speak in words of praise. Their songs were all good—some of them, of course, were newer a few years ago than they were last night—but, taken altogether, they left little to be desired. The "Good" song of Mr. Rich deserves more than a passing word of praise. It was a delightful. Our own George Fax had no stage make-up, but as far as singing was concerned, he was "right in it" with the best of them. The elocutionist, Mr. Cameron, was very happy in his selections, and at one established himself a warm favorite. He is gifted with magnetism, and a story-teller is inimitable. The Oddfellows Band played two most enjoyable selections, and added greatly to the pleasure of the evening. Mizpah Lodge, I.O.O.F., every reason to feel proud of the success of their entertainment. Miss Chalmers acted as accompanist.

After the concert Messrs. Rich, Cameron and Harvey were entertained by the Quinto Musical Club, and a very pleasant time was spent. The three gentlemen were made honorary members of the Club, which action was gratefully acknowledged by all.

HOME FROM THE KLONDIKE.

Dr. A. E. Wills Arrives to Visit His Friends.

Tramped Six Hundred Miles on the Way Out—No Danger of Starvation at Dawson—Home on Private Business—Favors the Old Routes.

Dr. A. E. Wills, youngest son of County Treasurer Thomas Wills, and brother of Mr. J. F. Wills, barrister, arrived home on the 12:10 train from the west to day, direct from Klondike, where he has spent the last four years. Despite the fact that the climate is very trying in that northern region and that the food obtainable is very often of the plainest character and none too abundant, Dr. Wills looks the picture of health. He has the bronzed complexion of one who has "roughed it" for some time.

When Dr. Wills was seen by a reporter this afternoon he was enjoying the comforts of his father's cosy home on Church street.

It will be remembered Dr. Wills joined the Northwest Mounted Police in 1893 and was shortly afterward despatched with a detachment of the police to Fort Oudash, on the Yukon. This was some time before any rich strikes had been made in that district. When Dawson City was started he was transferred there, where he remained until December 16th last, when he resigned his appointment and started for the east.

A LONE TRAMP.

He came out over the passes and by Dyea. He walked about six hundred miles of the journey, covering the distance in twenty-six days. At Dyea he took boat for Vancouver, and he arrived in Toronto yesterday, where he was met by his brother, Mr. H. T. Wills, of Orillia, and they spent the afternoon and evening together.

When questioned as to whether the reports of the scarcity of food in the district were true, he replied that they had been greatly exaggerated.

"There will be no scarcity more than there has been every spring," said he. "There is always a scarcity of food in the spring, and this spring will be no exception to the rule."

"Will the want of food be more keenly felt this spring than formerly?" asked the reporter.

"There are more people in there than formerly, and there will consequently be a greater number hungry," was Dr. Wills' reply.

"It is absolutely impossible to get in supplies at this time of year, no matter how much they are needed," he continued, "and if assistance were sent out now it could not get in before May 27th or 30th. Every spring there is a great scarcity of food, and while there were no deaths there has been a lot of suffering. He had himself been put on two weeks a day and that not the most nourishing food."

FAVORS THE OLD ROUTE.

Regarding the routes to the Klondike Dr. Wills would say very little. He believed the route the Government had chosen was a practical one. On the whole, he favored the upper passes. He had come out by Dyea, which he considered the "old stand-by." The White pass might be all right; he had never been over it, and was therefore not in a position to judge. Col. Danville probably knew what he was talking about when he said the route was practicable, but Dr. Wills said that those who knew anything about the country refused to travel by it.

DON'T GO BY CALGARY.

Dr. Wills is of opinion that the all-Canadian route will not become popular, owing to its being a longer trail than by the passes. Parties who left Calgary last year have not yet reached the Yukon, so far as he heard from, and those parties starting at that route now will not get in this year.

A RE-ENTER.

Asked if he would advise persons from Ontario to get that country or to stay away from it he replied:

"I would most decidedly advise no one to go to Klondike now, much less a man who has anything to do here. It is a great place, mining country but will be overcrowded this year. You only hear in the east of the successful ones. There are hundreds up there now who curse the day they ever left their homes."

WANTS BEAN WORK.

"What wages are paid in that country?" asked the reporter.

"Miners get a dollar an hour or $10 a day," replied the doctor, "but they can't do it. No man who has not been accustomed to hard work can stand the shovelling and digging that has to be done. There are hundreds of clerks and young men going in who have never done heavy work and they had better stay at home, where they can at least get enough to eat."

LAW AND ORDER GOOD.

Doctor Wills said that Dawson was an orderly place, taking into consideration the fact that all claims had been registered. There had been no serious trouble so far, nor did he anticipate any.

As to his mission to Ottawa, he would say nothing, nor would he speak of his own operations in the way of mining. He said he had several claims, but their richness had been greatly exaggerated by the papers.

The length of his stay in the east does largely upon the time he will be absent from Ottawa. Mr. H. T. Wills, of Orillia, his brother, accompanied him to the city.

A Big Chunk of Gold.

Mr. Henry Corby is the recipient of a very large gold nugget, given to him by Dr. A. E. Wills, of Dawson City, Klondike. The sight of it is enough to make one wish to be off to the land of gold at once. It is about the size of three large almond shells.

A Critical Point.

A man may be particular about his dress, but if he neglects his neckwear he will spoil what otherwise might be a splendid effect. It is the becoming neckwear that makes the whole suit a success. What the ordinary mortal wants is this harmony. The Oak Hall has all the novelties for spring in neckwear and they are very attractive.

Campaign Meeting.

Mayor Johnson has been invited, and has accepted the invitation, to address the electors of North Hastings at Stirling on Friday evening next. The Conservative candidate, Mr. W. J. Allen, will also be present. A largely attended and interesting meeting is anticipated.

There is Too Much of It.
When the snow is soft and packs nicely there is a temptation to the average boy to snowball that few of them can resist. If they would confine their efforts to peppering one another, peaceable citizens would not object, but it seems to be the delight of the youngsters to shy at unsuspecting people. Sometimes their aim is poor and the human target escapes, but it often happens that people have been severely hurt by these missiles. It may be fun for the boys, but it is not so considered by the individual who has to stand on his head to shake two or three ounces of congealed moisture from under his collar. College students have been subject to these attacks from a certain gang of boys who frequent the corner of Catherine and Ontario streets, and they will appear in police court tomorrow to explain, if they can, why they practice such tricks.

Albert Premo also complained to the police yesterday that a number of boys on Bridge at, united his horse and when he remonstrated with them he was peppered with snow.

Two Artists Coming.
The choir of the Tabernacle have arranged for a grand concert and recital on Friday evening, 11th inst. They have engaged Mr. Graham Hodgson, tenor, and Miss Ethel Webb, contralto, for the occasion. (If a recent appearance of Mr. Hodgson in Toronto, the Globe says: "The St. Mary's Church concert on Thursday night was a most successful one. Mr. Hodgson could not have been in better voice and hearty was the applause he met. Hodgson ended his performance with a grand and sweet song, 'The Love Song' on the high C with wonderful power and sweetness. He sang several other songs and each time had to respond to applause.")

Speaking of Miss Webb the Globe has the following: "Of Miss Webb too much cannot be said of her as a Reader. Her power over an audience is wonderful, and her confidence with her beautiful and graceful stage appearance, makes her a success wherever she goes."—Feb. 10.

HIS LIFE CRUSHED OUT.

John Carney, of Tyendinaga, Killed This Morning.

Thrown into the River Under a Load of Wood—He Was Turning Around to Help a Friend—Only Lived a Short Time After the Accident.

An appalling accident occurred on the Caniford Road at 11:15 this morning, whereby John Carney, of the 9th concession of Tyendinaga, lost his life.

There was a long sleigh, which was not so easily turned as a bob sleigh would have been, and before he got around the load got near the edge of the steep bank of the river at this point. He was standing on the back of his sleigh and when the load started he had no time to escape and was pinned between the fence and the wood.

Going to Help a Neighbor.
John Cockings, a neighbor, was a short distance behind Carney with another load of wood, and he upset. When Carney saw his neighbor in trouble he started to turn his team round to go to his assistance. His load was on a long sleigh, which was not so easily turned as a bob sleigh would have been, and before he got around the load got near the edge of the steep bank of the river at this point. He was standing on the back of his sleigh and when the load started he had no time to escape and was pinned between the fence and the wood.

Dashed Into the River.
The fence is old and rotten and gave way under the strain of the heavy weight against it. Carney fell backwards and the wood and horses fell on top of him on the ice, a distance of fifteen feet below the road.

Another account of the affair is that Carney was turning from one track into another in order to avoid the bank, when the accident occurred.
There were some eye-witnesses of the affair and several parties rushed to his assistance. There was no much wood piled upon him that it took fully fifteen minutes to extricate him, and he was dead.

Was Dying When Taken Out.
He was carried to the bank with some difficulty, as there is a steep declivity all along the road at this point, and was placed in H. Taylor's sleigh to be brought to the city. He was taken from the wood by R. Brown, G. T. R. Angerson.

In the meantime word had been sent to several physicians and Dr. Gibson met the sleigh conveying Carney before it reached the city. He instructed the parties with him to take him to Frost's undertaking room, but he died before he reached there.

Horses Badly Cut Up.
Carney's horses were called down upon the wood, and one of them was so badly cut up that it is doubtful if it lives. The other escaped with a few slight cuts. Mr. Cockings had the animals taken out of the river and driven to Donovon's barn, a short distance away, where they were attended to by Dr. Ackert.

He was an Industrious Man.
There were several friends and neighbors who saw the body of the man who they all speak in the highest terms of him. He was a hard working, industrious man, and respected by all who knew him.

Mr. Carney was about 35 years of age and was born in Tyendinaga. His brothers—Robert, Tyendinaga; William, Hungerford; Charles, Peterboro; James, Vancouver; Thomas, in the States; and one sister—Mrs. John Irvine, Thurlow—survive him.

He married about fourteen years ago a Miss Irvine, and one child, a girl about thirteen years of age, was the only child of their union. The mother and daughter are left to mourn his loss. Deceased was a staunch Conservative and an Orangeman. The remains were prepared for burial this afternoon and will be taken to his home this evening.

His Injuries.
Carney was badly crushed. Both legs were broken. His body was terribly jammed, causing internal injuries. Two wounds on the face and a contusion on the forehead. The wound on the head is supposed to have caused his death.

It is remarkable that his father received injuries in a runaway about fifteen years ago from which he died shortly afterward.

A Dangerous Road.
The road all the way from Limer's mill to the city is dangerous. It is not only a short distance—at some places only a few feet—from the edge of the steep bank, but the road is so narrow that it is impossible to pass. From where the fence is standing it is so rotten and inside quakes to resist any force.

The Old Mill's say that the mill's furnishing department is altogether complete yet. We are now in a larger store, and in the course of a week or ten days you can find almost anything you need, as well as making a special effort in general furnishing goods. In the meantime, our stock is in pretty good shape. New shirts, collars and trousers, and many other things are very pretty. Our English collars at 10c are having a great run.

Business Hints.
Your advertising should be a continuous story, yet each ad. should be complete in itself.
Advertising pays, and no man knows that better than the man who has tried it faithfully. The man who makes the most noise attracts the most attention.
In this day of sharp competition in all branches of trade, each and every business must be well kept before the public to succeed.

Political Points.
THE PROVINCIAL FINANCES.
A surplus of $4,800,000 in 1872.
A debt of $3,000,000 in 1898.
A reported revenue of four millions more than was received.
A Treasurer who cannot show where the four millions have gone.
Our finances have been mismanaged, and we require economy and an audit.

When a political party goes to the country declaring that its leaders have spent $4,000,000 less than they have received and that the money is not in the treasury, it is surely not only timorous a change, but for an audit.

Caught From a Lamp.
Mrs. Wm. Douglass, Moira st., set a lamp on a pantry shelf about seven o'clock last evening and it set fire to the shelf above. It took the flames were extinguished about $40 damage was done. The firemen were called, but their services were not required.

A New Selection.
When the Canadian contingent visited England last June to take part in the Jubilee they were greatly surprised with the number of the Guards' band while they were entering and leaving London. The selection is entitled "Soldiers of the Queen," and Col. Ponton has just secured the music for the Oddfellows' and Military band.

Magistrate Flint's Court.
GRACE BERNARD.
Thos. Grille appeared before the Magistrate this morning on the charge of stealing a pair of horse collars from Tobias Dorcas, of Sidney. It appears he borrowed the collars and sold them for 50 cents, with which to buy liquor. He was remanded till Monday next.

Carnival to be Held.
A Grand Fete Carnival is to be held at the Odd Fellows' rink on Wednesday, the 19th inst. A large number of couples are expected to be present. The only affair of the kind this season. The rink will be in attendance, and no doubt the carnival will be a grand success. The prize will be placed on exhibition in a front street window.

"I cannot carry the Riding." H. G. Bleecker, Hardy's candidate in West Hastings.

—What fortunate fellow the Hebrews of Ontario were! They escaped the disassembled of the Hardy Government.

—Sir Richard Cartwright (dealing with the Yukon Railway contract)—"At the best, the matter was a huge gamble." Yet, and the gamblers won.

—Canada's Liberal Government at Ottawa is fast degenerating into a mere machine for the manufacture of Canadian Mark Hanna's—Telegraph.

—Indeed, it is time for a change, not only at Toronto, but at Ottawa as well. Too much Yukon, Drummond Counties and Crow's Nest Pass Railway Deal!

—Of the 570 voters who registered in the city, but 140 were new ones. The other 430 names had been on part 3 of the voters list, which the new law wiped out.

—What a Government Canada would have if Sir Wilfrid Laurier's colleagues would only act as nobly as Sir Wilfrid Laurier can talk.—Toronto Telegram.

—Hear! Hear! But his colleagues don't act "nobly," and they can't talk "nobly."

—Toronto World.—We believe the hope of the country today is in the Senate and in the press and in the voice of the people. The Senate can wall off to step in and defeat that Yukon contract with its monopoly, its land grab and its attendant corruption.

—Provincial Treasurer Harcourt states that the Province has a surplus of $5,208,324.10 over liabilities "nearly payable."

—But that is not the point. What do the liabilities which are not "presently payable" amount to? "You had better speak now," Mr. Harcourt.

—The Yukon Railway deal, put up by McKenna, Mann and the Laurier Government, reminds one of the shell game at a country fair. The Government has the shells and pawns. McKenna and Mann are the "coppers." The country is the confiding and gullible public.

—The situation created by the Government's weak, compromising course is plain enough. Weakened by the withdrawal of Sir Oliver Mowat, with many dissatisfied interests whose grievances it is unable to remove, the Government is without the hearty support of a large section of the people, whose utmost aid is necessary to its success in the coming elections. This is the situation which, it seems to us, confronts the Hardy Government.—Montreal Witness (Brit.)

—Hardy is playing the "active sympathy" game in London, in the hope of electing his candidate there. He has promised to erect a Normal School in that city, in spite of the fact that, owing to the over-crowding of the teaching profession, there is not enough to occupy the Normal Schools that are now in operation.

—But perhaps Hardy's promises are in accordance with the name of his candidate in London.—Lyon —A correspondent of the Mail and Empire wants to know if Dr. Dewar, who is the Reform candidate in North Toronto, is the same Dr. Dewar who is paid superannuation money by the Methodist Church.

If the Rev. gentleman is too old to work in the name of the Master, the correspondent wants to know how he has enough vigor to go through an arduous campaign, and to become, if he can, the member of a Legislature. There would seem at this point to be room for two or three good sized explanations.

—A letter from Senator De Lome, Spanish Minister in Washington, in which President McKinley is savagely attacked, is likely to cause the recall of the Minister.

A CURIOUS LEGEND.

WHY THE 6TH OF JANUARY WAS ONCE A MARKED DAY.

Quaint Story of the Travels of the Pilgrims of olden times. The story of the three Jews who came to the East to see the infant Jesus. History of the much-travelled Money.

The 6th of January was a marked day in the calendar of medieval times, for upon it fell the Feast of the Epiphany—the most popular of Christian festivals—Christmas day only excepted. All good churchmen knew that the word Epiphany—meaning the "appearing"—has reference to the star which guided the "three wise men" to the stable at Bethlehem twelve days after the birth of the little child.

Tradition says that they were three Kings—the names, Melchior, Balthazar, and Gaspar—the one an Arabian, the second of the race of Ham, and the third, Jewish, representing the three divisions of the world-wide homage to be paid to the incarnate Jehovah.

According to the King of Kings three gifts did bring. Melchior presented gold in recognition of the sovereignty of the infant, Gaspar, frankincense, in acknowledgment of his divinity, and Balthazar, myrror, as typical of his human life—destined to be so full of bitterness.

Of the gold offered by Melchior, there is, according to ancient legend, a very curious story. Originally, it is said, Terah, the father of Abraham, the money was given by him to his son upon his departure from the land of the Chaldeans. It is stated in the Koran—adopted from Moslem traditions—that the patriarch was forced into exile on account of his monotheistic convictions, and because he would not engage in his father's business which was the manufacture of idols of gold and silver. These idols were the money of the land, and "Terah,"—where the name of the patriarch is given as "Abraham"—was not used for the purchase of the Jews of Mesopotamia of Ephron the Hittite.

When Joseph's brethren sold him to the Egyptians they received the identical piece of gold. In payment—so runs the legend—which they afterward sold to Joseph, when driven into exile on account of his monotheistic convictions, and because he would not engage in his father's business which was the manufacture of idols of gold and silver. These idols were the money of the land, and "Terah,"—where the name of the patriarch is given as "Abraham"—was not used for the purchase of the Jews of Mesopotamia of Ephron the Hittite.

Nearly 1,000 years later, Melchior, the apocryphal successor of the Arab Terah, brought them as a gift to "Him" who was called the King of the Jews.

It would seem that the legend of our visionary archaeologists might be over-crowded, further, by the fact that the same piece of gold, which was the money of the New Testament—wherever money plays a part—but they struck at nothing.

The story goes on to state that in the hurry of the flight into Egypt the Virgin mother dropped the gold piece in a field, where they were afterwards overtaken by a shepherd. Not daring to disclose his gold fortune, he hid it in a bush, and the money was saved from being lost.

Not daring to disclose his gold fortune, he hid it in a bush, and the money was saved from being lost.

Ms. F. "I must apologize for my very early call, Mrs. S., but circumstances prevent me from calling later today. Our friends, Miss Church, informed me yesterday that you had quite banished your dyspepsia and nervousness by using Paine's Celery Compound. Can you truly recommend the medicine?"

Ms. S. "My dear Mrs. F., all that you have heard from Miss Church is quite true. Paine's Celery Compound is indeed a most marvelous medicine, pleasant to use, and has done more for me than my doctor could do. I cannot possibly give you a stronger recommendation."

Ms. F. "Well, candidly, Mrs. S., I have suffered terribly from indigestion and frequent attacks of painful neuralgia, and have used many medicines, but to no avail as had to-day as was six months ago. Upon your recommendation I shall give Paine's Celery Compound a trial."

Ms. S. "I am so pleased to hear of your wise decision! I am sure you will not be disappointed. I heard a few days ago that our minister's wife was using Paine's Celery Compound for her rheumatism, and is now able to be out again. Really, Mrs. F., my faith in Paine's Celery Compound gets stronger every day."

Ruin to the Butchers.

Blithesome jokes about the Humber piggy are all right, but the butchers whose revenues are lessened by the decreased price of pork, are in no mood for wild gales of laughter.

A Queen at West butcher declares that his trade has fallen off $100 per week since the disclosure of the piggy issue reached its acute stage.

Evidence to the effect that disassembled pork was sold on the Toronto market has been the cause of the people's appetite for pork. This butcher, who reports the figures of his loss, is only one of many.

The last Ontario Government could have done was to have traced the pork to its source, and to have made the dealers who buy their pork from farmers should have their trade temporarily ruined through the carelessness of public officials.

The Mysterious Mr. Mills.

Apparently the Government will hardly be able, with reasons too mysterious and awful to make public, to overcome and out-facinate Sir Mackenzie Bowell, the leader of the Senate, into letting the Yukon Railway contract pass. More sure about it!

Truth be told, the only way to understand, but the hard-headed ex-Premier is not to be dazzled by reasons too important to be revealed. Hon. Mr. Mills is an adept at the business of the ancient. He can no doubt find a precedent in the annals of the Abyssinians or the Afridis or some body for getting a Government contract by the honest authority on the side of buying a pig in a poke.

The fact is that the Senate has had a trifling too much political experience to be taken in by this kind of ruse. The game is up. The honorable gentleman who co-operates with Sir Mackenzie would hardly make good partners for a "gold brick."

It is a pity that Sir Mackenzie is not the man to take Mr. Mills' wink for it that the pea is under the national walnut shell when it is looked to him as if it rolled somewhere else. He is a good fellow but on his own gaffer he will insist that the "shells" be taken off, and the light let in. Sir Richard may be ready to dismiss it as a "huge gamble," but the building up of the rail line to the Yukon with a double-barrelled monopoly and a prospectus for a bonus, is a matter to be seriously and openly examined by the honest authority before the country is committed to it.

Election Truths.

Stanford Hard.—Mr. Whitney shines in contrast with the shrewd and unprincipled Mr. Hardy as a man of straightforward thought and simple candor—politician with a conscience.

Renfrew Journal.—If the Hardy Government is not overthrown then they will have put up the light of their life for the Opposition are in good fighting trim, and their organization is said to be perfect.

Brookville Times.—Grit organs are trying to stem the panic which has seized their party ranks by unkindly cooing assurances of victory, but the truth is that real and deep-seated to be removed by such superficial assumptions of confidence. The fear which is present written sticks out from between the lines.

Galt Reporter.—All the independent newspapers and the press with the exception of the Toronto Star—an organ of the renegade Sheppard, and the mouth-piece of McKenna, of Yukon railway fame regard the jig as being up with Mr. Hardy.

London Free Press.—Liberty, corruption and extravagance are rampant; and unless the people now rise in their might to destroy the idle, there is no telling where the recklessness of the present Government will end.

The "World's" Idea.

Toronto World.—The Liberal press has been coloring and twisting the facts, and are uncertain as to what is to happen. Let the Conservatives take heart and be not afraid. If the Liberals are to expose, they may put up the light of their life for the Opposition are in good fighting trim, and their organization is said to be perfect.

NOT SATISFIED.

Dr. Dewart's Candidature May Injure the Superannuation Fund.

The Toronto News says: "It is understood that there is some feeling in the Methodist church, both among the ministers and laymen, on account of Dr. Dewart presenting himself as a legislative candidate.
The objection is that the doctor is in receipt of superannuation allowance from the church and is supposed to be incapacitated from work, and that if he can undertake the exertion incident to a political life he can just as well take a pupil." Report says that these opinions will have some influence upon future contributions to the superannuation fund of the church. Report is also expressed that Dr. Dewart did not consult his ministerial confessor before taking the step he has taken."

One on the Magistrate.

The police have been busy during the past few days notifying parties to clean their walks of snow, and their efforts have had a good result in most cases, but there are some patches still uncleared. Mr. J.
C. Moynes says that the walk in front of a double house owned by Police Magistrate Flint on Everett st. has not been cleared this winter. Could the Cadi sit on the bench and fine a man for a breach of the Snow By-Law, knowing that a walk fronting his property is uncleared?

Collars for 10 Cts.

Did any store in Belleville ever offer collars of any kind for 10 cents until the full Oak Hall introduced them? Take a walk around to-day and see if you can find such a thing outside of our store. We have them, all sizes and all shapes, warranted manufacture and 4-ply linen. You know what you have always had to pay. We challenge any one to equal our collar for less than 10c. We invite customers to make the comparison and then judge who saves them money.

His Morning Siesta.

Officer Morton in his rounds this morning discovered a boy twelve years of age, who was enjoying himself to the full extent. He was lying at full length on the steam coils in the post office lobby enjoying a cigarette. He was marched down to the Chief of office, where he had the riot act read to him in good style. He promised to reform and was allowed to go.

Could do No Work.

"Large sores broke out on my body, head and limbs, and also on my hands, so that I could not do any work, except to handle my trouble was called eczema. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. When I took several bottles the sores and itching disappeared and I was cured." Mrs.
J. C. Brown, Deseronto, Ont.

Will Not Run.

Kington, Feb. 10.—Mr. McIlze, who was turned down by the Frontenac Liberal convention, and subsequently intimated his intention of entering the contest independently, has now again changed his mind.
He now announces definitely that he will not run. The fight will thus be between
Mr. Gallagher, Conservative, and Mr.
Haycock, Patriot.

BRAKEMAN'S HORRIBLE DEATH

Charles Knox, of Port Hope,
Cut to Pieces by a Train.

Fell from the Train at the First Overhead Bridge—Body Badly
Mangled—Had Only Been on the Road Three Weeks.

A number of persons who were at, or near the overhead bridge on North Front
st. about 12:35 to-day witnessed a sight which they will not soon forget. Charles Knox, a brakeman on a west bound freight train, fell to the track and was literally cut to pieces.

From eye-witnesses of the horrible accident we gleaned the following particulars:
Knox was going from the van towards the engine on top of the train and when but a rod or two west of the overhead bridge he went to step from a low car to a high one, when he slipped and fell. In an instant he was lying on the track, and the wheels of several cars passed over him before the train could be stopped. Among those who witnessed the accident were three members of the Latta family and Mr. O.B.
Scantlebury.

The unfortunate man only raised his head just after one or twice and died.

A member of Officer Hayes' family saw the train stop and the officer went down and took charge of the remains, which were placed on the train and taken back to the station.

The dead man's home is in Port Hope.
He was about twenty-five years of age and had only been on the road about three weeks. He was unmarried.

The train was No. 99 in charge of Conductor McGarry and Engineer McGibbon, both of York. Knox's mate was a brakeman named Cowling.

Dr. Gibson was summoned. He found the man horribly injured. His body was nearly cut in two above the hips, both legs were broken and there was a deep gash over the left eye—in fact enough to cause death.

The coroner was notified, but when we went to present it was not decided as to whether an inquest would be held or not.

our desire that should a further supply be needed before Conference, the services of Bro. Clark would be acceptable.

"Men Wanted."

It was only a fair-sized audience that listened to Rev. Manley Benson, of Montreal, lecture last evening in Hallway st.
church on the subject of "Men Wanted," but those present enjoyed a treat that is not often offered to a Belleville audience.

Rev. Dr. Dyer, of Albert College, occupied the chair and introduced the lecturer.
Rev. Mr. Benson started out by showing what men were wanted and what were not wanted in the pursuits of this life. Men were wanted who were honest and upright, not rogues and rascals. Men who were lifters, not loafers, were wanted. Men of uncertain ability and courage were not wanted.

SIR OLIVER'S WISE COUNSEL.

"The occasion is one in which Conservatives and Reformers should all unite in order that there may be here in Ontario a Government independent of the Government at Ottawa."—Sir Oliver Mowat, Globe, Dec. 20, 1896.

SNAP SHOTS AT TIMELY TOPICS.

"I cannot carry the Riding."—H. G. Bleeker, Hardy's candidate in West Hastings.

"Vote for Whitney's candidate and get a clean, honest Government."

"The country is with Whitney—his time to win is at hand."

"Grit rule and the Hardy Government must go out of business March 1st, 1898."

"This is the debt owing over available assets $4,230,349, as a souvenir of twenty-six years of Reform Government."

"Reliable reports from all over the province assure us that Mr. Whitney will come into office as the result of the election on March 1st."

"Our municipalities are so much in debt and so heavily taxed because the Government take their revenue. It is time for a change."

"The Grit Government have the license system to get the lion's share of the money and keep down municipal revenue and to push up municipal taxes."

"Reliable information from East and North Hastings leaves no doubt of the success of Messrs. Stokes and Allen in those constituencies."

"The disgraced surrender by the Government to the Yankee Timber Barons of the right to export logs for manufacture in the United States, calls for the most severe condemnation. Defeat them on March 1st!"

"In the face of the fact that the Ontario Grit Government have expended $3,442,068 more than they received, they still claim a surplus. See their campaign document. How unfair! how deceptive!"

"The Globe announces the names of the Grit nominees in Ottawa under the heading 'The Swing of Victory.' Yes, victory is swinging towards the Conservative side in Ottawa, and with no uncertain swing."

"The financial policy of the Reform Government is a helpless one—to drift. They make no attempt to make ends meet, and unless the expenditures are reduced the result must be direct taxation in one form or another."

"Owing to the Ontario Government allowing excessive profits to the publishers and royalties to the authors, the price of all the Ontario text books has been unduly increased, thus taking thousands of dollars annually out of the pockets of the people."

"Speaking of the surplus and the manner in which the Hardy Government figures it out, the Ottawa Journal (Grit) says: 'If the Journal had a bookkeeper who showed his business to have a surplus of over four millions 24 years ago, and to have also to quote the language of the Grit campaign document' 'a net addition to the surplus from 1873 to 1897 out of revenue of $5,197,128,' and if that bookkeeper then added the two together to present the Journal with a total surplus now of five millions—why, we'd fire that bookkeeper."

"America's greatest medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which cures when all other preparations fail to do any good whatever."

When it is remembered that the contractors are allowed an absolute monopoly of the whole Yukon railway tariff for five years, that they have a preference over all other railway promoters in that district for ten years, and that they get a free gift of 375,000 acres of the choicest gold lands that they can find in the whole territory, the nature of the "bargain" which the Government has made with McKenna and Mann may be imagined. It is not a bargain at all. It is a bonanza of princely favor. It resembles one of those gifts of

A HIGH-RISK P. ASBORG

At Least Eleven Persons Killed, Twenty-six Injured and Eighteen Missing.

BIG EXPLOSION OF STORED WHISKY

Fearful Blaze in a Fire-Trap Which Firemen Were Unable to Fight.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 10.—A fire of mysterious origin was discovered about 8 o'clock last evening in the six-story cold storage plant of the Chautauque Lake Ice Co. An explosion of whisky occurred at 11.15, which blew out the skylight and on one side with terrible results. At the time, the alley was filled with firemen, policemen, newspaper men and others. Many were caught by the falling walls.

At least 11 persons were killed, over a score injured, and property valued at $1,000,000 was destroyed.

Owing to the construction of the building it was practically impossible to fight the fire from without, while the volume of smoke made it impossible to fight the fire from within the burning building.

For three hours the firemen worked, scarcely knowing what they were doing. The iron shutters were impregnable to their attacks.

Finally at 11 o'clock the flames burst out through the roof and spread over a hundred feet, making that part of the city as light as day. Suddenly above the roar of the flames and the putting of the fire engines came a sharp report, which was soon followed by a second and a third.

Those within the fire lines were soon to fall in all directions.

Those outside the lines were not beyond the reach of danger.

Those not prostrated by the first blast were knocked down by the reactionary waves of air, as the falling walls created a vacuum that seemed to draw in everything.

CATCHES IN A TRAP.

It was on the Mulberry alley side where the least danger was anticipated, that the force of the explosion was the most severe, and there the greatest number of fatalities took place.

Explosion followed explosion for about half an hour between 12 and 1 o'clock. Walls kept toppling down, and firemen, policemen and spectators were rendered almost powerless to act by the sense of awe and terror which the scene inspired.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 10.—Eleven persons dead, twenty-six missing, and eighteen injured, was the result of a fire which broke out at 8 o'clock, and which, with a few exceptions, has been the worst disaster in the history of the city.

GOOD ROADS.

A. W. Campbell, Instructor of Roads, at Roblin's Mills.

The meeting held to take place at Roblin's Mills, in the Township of Amabelburg, yesterday in the Town Hall was a decided success, and very good results will undoubtedly follow the visit of the Commissioner to that place.

Mr. Campbell, who unfortunately was delayed in arriving at the hall at 2 p.m., did not prevent the very large number of people who were present from remaining another half hour after the time.

Reverend Anderson, promptly upon the arrival of the instructor, took the platform and was received with the usual amount of enthusiasm that has characterized his popularity upon previous occasions.

Mr. Anderson apologized for the delay that had been caused by the instructor, and briefly stated that he hoped the instructor's address would be of such an interesting nature that those present would regret the anxiety of waiting.

He further stated that the object of the Council in writing Mr. Campbell to deliver an address on the proper construction of roads was mainly for the purpose of educating the people.

He hoped the instructor would appreciate his efforts in this direction, and he was sure they would from the large number present, and if Mr. Campbell gave any idea that in his opinion would be of any advantage in the construction of roads, they would adopt them.

In his (the speaker's) opinion, the present system of performing road work is not only wasteful, but also dangerous, and he was sure that the education of the people to adopt better methods of improving the roads.

The following gentlemen were then invited to take seats upon the platform: E. W. H. Mann, Township Engineer; Jas. Benson, Clerk; Jas. E. Glenn, ex-Warden; John Simpson, J. J. Ward and W. S. Morden.

Upon introducing Mr. Campbell, Mr. Anderson paid a flattering compliment to that gentleman's ability and the good services rendered by him in the past, and he was sure that he would be of great assistance in building sample roads.

Mr. Campbell, on taking the platform, was received in the most enthusiastic manner, and he was sure that the people of Amabelburg felt in the subject he was about to address them.

His address was practical, firm and plain, and he did not lose a moment in being engaged in was thoroughly at his finger ends. He criticized in the severest manner the system followed by many municipalities in the past, and he was sure that the people would be benefited by the adoption of the system he was about to propose.

He was not present for the purpose of enforcing any particular system of road building, but to simply give them some ideas, and to show them that it was possible to build roads that would be of great service to the community.

He was also the idea of a C. E. F. The speaker showed in the most convincing manner the system that he was about to propose, and he was sure that the people would be benefited by the adoption of the system he was about to propose.

GOOD ROADS.

A. W. Campbell, Instructor of Roads, at Roblin's Mills.

The meeting held to take place at Roblin's Mills, in the Township of Amabelburg, yesterday in the Town Hall was a decided success, and very good results will undoubtedly follow the visit of the Commissioner to that place.

Mr. Campbell, who unfortunately was delayed in arriving at the hall at 2 p.m., did not prevent the very large number of people who were present from remaining another half hour after the time.

Reverend Anderson, promptly upon the arrival of the instructor, took the platform and was received with the usual amount of enthusiasm that has characterized his popularity upon previous occasions.

Mr. Anderson apologized for the delay that had been caused by the instructor, and briefly stated that he hoped the instructor's address would be of such an interesting nature that those present would regret the anxiety of waiting.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—A prisoner who was taken into custody by Detective Davis yesterday is Charles Loitz, a young man who is a member of the "Black Legion," a young man who is a member of the "Black Legion," a young man who is a member of the "Black Legion."

When the Hulton county farmers were taken to the wheel saloon, last fall a considerable number of counterfeit bills were passed. Detective Davis found in Loitz's room a number of one dollar bills of the latest Dominion issue raised to five dollars and ten dollars. The counterfeiters for the most part executed cleverly and in a rush of business could pass without any difficulty, and some of them have been passed in this city. The finely executed cutting of various numbers were also found and had been prepared for use in raising bills.

In all nearly $5,000 dollars worth of bogus money was found in Loitz's room. The young man was already wanted at Orangeville and Oakville, where he also had been victimizing people. Loitz will appear in the Police Court today. He has served two years in the Prison of Ontario.

SIR OLIVER'S WISE COUNSEL.

"The occasion is one in which Conservatives and Reformers should all unite in order that there may be here in Ontario a Government independent of the Government at Ottawa."—Sir Oliver Mowat, Globe, Dec. 20, 1896.

SNAP SHOTS AT TIMELY TOPICS.

"I cannot carry the Riding."—H. G. Blocker, Hardy's candidate in West Hastings.

"There is, from all accounts, going to be a big turn over in West Hastings. The Conservatives fully expect to win."—World.

"Whitney and Matheson will have a grand reception in Belleville on Thursday evening next. Go and hear them discuss the public affairs of Ontario."

"If all the counties do as well as Grey, Whitney will be Premier! So hoarse!"—So writes our Mackinac correspondent, who is confident that all the Greys will go straight Conservative.—World.

"We do not believe the Yukon bill, as it now stands, will ever become law. Hon. Mr. Mills and on behalf of the Government in the Senate that it will have to be modified. We believe the Senate will kill it. It deserves to be killed."—World.

"Writing The Peterboro Review, 'An Old Time Liberal' observes: Ontario was not a province of this Dominion in 1867, and for 30 years there has not been an independent audit of the public accounts. If there was no other reason this one is sufficient to justify the assertion that 'It is time for a change.'"

"The union is Laurier and Hardy, the former trying to carry the latter through the elections of March 1 by the kindness and benevolence of the contractors. But we are afraid that the Yukon bill will give the finishing touch to Mr. Hardy's hold on office. Maun and McKenzie will kill him, not save him."—World.

"Says the London Evening News, an Independent newspaper:—

The Belleville Sun speaks of a gentleman in that locality who is accused of having changed his politics, and it burlesques Marc Antony's speech over the body of Caesar by remarking: 'O, what a noble man was this my countryman.' The News does not know the local circumstances, but it does know that it would prefer any body to make a quicker 'flip' than the Sun did when it turned from a professedly independent paper into the rankest kind of a Grip sheet."

"Notwithstanding the resolution of the Ontario Legislature forbidding civil servants to participate in elections, it is understood that in East Algoma the officials of the Ontario Government are out on mass helping Mr. Farwell, Division Court clerk, jailer, sessional clerk, license inspectors, etc., are alleged to be helping the Liberal candidate on the stump and otherwise."—World.

"The broad fact is that public opinion would support the Senate in throwing out the Yukon Railway bargain. The House of Commons is the representative assembly, but the irresponsible Senate, with public opinion at its back, can do something to teach the majority in the Commons to be representative of the people rather than of corporate greed and of Ministerial simplicity."—Telegram.

Do not forget the meeting of the Central and Ward Committees to-morrow night. All Conservatives are welcome at Albert Hall. Let there be a good attendance.

Ladies, have you ever tried Whitmore's Pills? It is the best we ever had for winter use. It keeps its appearance under rubbers. For sale by Haines & Lockett.

The session of one of the Presbyterian churches in Kingston has ordered the choir of the church to discontinue chanting the "Amen" at the close of the hymns. The practice was commenced with the adoption of the new hymnal.

The concert in the Theatre Royal hall on Friday evening of this week will be a most enjoyable affair. The many friends of Mr. J. P. Whitney, for whose benefit the entertainment is being arranged, will doubtless turn out in large numbers. Dancing after the programme.

SPORTING NEWS.

BASKET BALL.

The game between the Y.M.C.A. and Battalion teams at the drill shed last evening was a much better exhibition than the former games between the same teams, but the Y.M.C.A. proved too fast for the boys in red. The latter made twelve fouls, nearly all of which were converted by their opponents to points. The score stood 20 points to 13. A team from the battalion put on the boys a most interesting contest.

The Y.M.C.A. team were afterwards entertained by the battalion team.

Book Sale Withdrawn.

We had expected to sell every book at last Saturday's sale, but the rainy day was somewhat against us, and in consequence we were forced to have one more day's sale to accomplish our object, so in yesterday's papers we announced a sale for next Saturday.

We have since decided to withdraw the sale, as there are not enough books left for a successful sale and we will offer the balance of these books at private sale at the special sale prices, for the whole of the week. No conditions are attached except cash must accompany each purchase.

Come along now, pick your choice of books and carry them away with you at the time of purchase, if you choose.

"Why Be a Christian?"

In the absence of Dr. Galloway, who was expected to address the Bridge Street Epworth League last evening, the service was conducted by Miss M. L. Johnson.

The topic chosen was "Why Be a Christian?" and a number gave their reasons for deciding and continuing to live the Christian life. After this interesting and profitable session closed the Executive Committee appointed delegates to attend the Conference League Convention to be held next week in Peterborough.

Carnival Prizes.

The prizes for the Fancy Dress Carnival are on exhibition in John Lewis & Co.'s window. A large number of entries have already been received, which no doubt will assure the success of the only carnival this winter.

Rev. Dr. Griffith's Lecture.

Rev. Dr. Griffith, of Brookville, lectured to a large audience in the Tabernacle last evening on "The Steps by Which We Climb to Higher Things." Rev. Newton Hill occupied the chair and Rev. Mr. Ferguson opened the meeting with prayer.

The lecturer dealt eloquently and forcibly with his subject. He named six steps—purpose, plan, push, perseverance, principle and piety—by which we must climb if we are to reach higher things. He dwelt at some length on each step, showing its necessity in the ascent. At the close Rev. Dr. Dyer moved, seconded by Rev. Dr. Oude, a hearty vote of thanks for the very able address, and Rev. Dr. Gardner closed with the benediction.

All using Note Heads, Bill Heads and Statements can have them printed and delivered from $1.25 upwards. All sorts of first quality stationery on hand.

THAT "ALL CANADIAN" ROUTE

Completely Blocked by Yankee Legislation.

Timely Advice by a Patriotic Canadian Newspaper—What the Government Ought to do.

Montreal Star

Congress is taking a lively interest in the Canadian Government's ALL-CANADIAN ROUTE TO THE YUKON. Senator Frye has introduced an amendment to the Revised Statutes of the United States which would expressly intended to knock the "all Canadian" element out of the "all Canadian" route.

First, he provides that the master of any foreign vessel arriving in the western waters of the United States from "any foreign territory adjacent to the northern, north-east or north-western frontiers of the United States," shall report at the office of the United States Collector of Customs nearest to the point at which such vessel shall enter such waters.

Canada is the only foreign country, except Newfoundland, adjacent to the United States northern, north-east or north-western frontiers, and the Stikine River contains the only United States waters that the Government of Canada is very anxious to send vessels to during the next five years.

The amendment next provides: "And such vessel shall not transfer her cargo or passengers to another vessel or proceed further inland either to unload or to take in cargo without a special permit from such Collector, issued under and in accordance with such general or special regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may in his discretion from time to time prescribe."

The penalty provided for any infraction of this law is the seizure and forfeiture of the vessel.

In other words, the Government which sits at the Washington of the North, provides "an all-Canadian route the Yukon," and the Government which sits at the Washington of the South is to have the absolute power of declaring from time to time whether and upon what conditions it will permit Canadian to use this all-Canadian route.

The New York Evening Post, a reliable paper, gives an account of what, some of these conditions may be. Its Washington correspondent says:

"It has occurred to the chairman of the two committees named that, before this right to collect duties on the Yukon route should be extended to the United States. Our citizens both in Washington and in Alaska, are eager to get their share of this trade, and Dyea is recognized as the natural entrepot of the Klondike region. The United States Government will probably ask that Canada shall accord the bonding privileges to American fishermen on the Atlantic Coast, so that they may transmit fresh fish over Canada railroads. They will also ask Canada to relinquish the right to collect duties on the Yukon route under 2500 pounds per capita, which is about one year's supply. On these outside the Yukon route is now collecting an ad valorem duty of 35 per cent. Since the are asking perpetual free trade on the Stikine river, it is thought to be no more than fair that free trade should be accorded American miners going across the boundary line at Dyea. Then it will be stipulated that, if any other railway line is projected through American and Canadian territory, it shall not be debarred by the monopoly offered to the Canadian line now projected. This subject is likely to attract considerable attention in Congress and at the Treasury and State Departments."

We submit that it is folly to go on with the bill. There is no time to lose; the terms of the contract are so objectionable that the bill will not be allowed to pass without the most strenuous opposition.

All the railway, if constructed, will never serve the purpose of an all-Canadian route to the Yukon. The route is a humiliating position with regard to the United States. If the Government will withdraw this abortive measure, the duty of the Canadian Government is to build a railway this year from Tule Lake, not to the head of an American creek, but to a Canadian settlement.

CITY AND DISTRICT

Keep this date open! Feb. 17th—Whitney at Opera House. All welcome.

Come and hear the Conservative leader Mr. J. P. Whitney, Thursday, Feb. 17th.

Gentlemen, try a bottle of Slater's tan or black waterproof polish. It is the best we ever had.—HAYES and LOCKETT.

Last night's snow storm did not help the sleighing much. The snow was blown off the roads all over the country.

Ladies, have you ever tried Whitmore's "Shoe Polish." It is the best we ever had for winter use. It keeps its appearance under rubbers. For sale by Hayes & Lockett.

The Toronto Garrison Revolver Association have requested the revolver team of the 15th to shoot a target match, but the local team has declined for the present, as their range has only just been completed and they have had little practice.

FOUR BAD BOYS.

They Stole Clothing and Other Articles From T. E. Elliott's House.

On February 7th Mr. T. E. Elliott moved from his late residence on Lingham St. to another house, but was unable to take all his effects in one day. When Mr. Elliott went back the day or two afterwards for the articles he found the house had been entered and several things stolen. He informed the police yesterday and Officer Morton was detailed on the case. He was less than two hours in bringing in a young man named Fred Renfrew, and implicating George, Walter and Charles Stapely, aged respectively 16, 14, and 10 years, in the robbery. He soon had all the missing property and deserves credit for the manner in which he worked up the case.

In the police court this morning the boys all pleaded guilty. Renfrew, who is 19 years of age, has served two years in the Reformatory, and he seems to have been the chief offender in the case. He took a $19 overcoat, among other things and sold it to Chase, Hayes, secondhand man, for 75c. He sold a silk waist worth about $5 to his brother-in-law, Fred Tilly, whom he claims afterwards sold it for 30c. He had on a pair of rubbers and boots, the property of Mr. Elliott.

The other boys only got what Renfrew didn't want, and they had not sold any of their plunder. They were allowed to go, but were warned that if their conduct was not good they would not get off so easily the next time.

Renfrew was remanded till to-morrow, when he will be sentenced.

The Magistrate talked very plainly to Hayes, who bought the coat. He said he had no doubt if an action for receiving stolen property was brought against him he would be convicted.

Stewart's Big Chunk of Coal.

Mr. Thos. Stewart has decorated the entrance to his coal office on Bridge street with an immense chunk of canned coal, weighing thirteen hundred pounds. It is certainly an attractive reminder of comfort and heat.

His Hand Crushed.

While Mr. John Robinson, son of ex. Ald. Robinson, was assisting in getting a locomotive at the G. T. R. round house ready for the road this forenoon, he fell with a painful accident. His left hand was crushed between the cab and the tender and the flesh was severely lacerated. Dr. McGill dressed the wound. Mr. Robinson, who is a fireman on the road, will be laid up for several days.

Chimneys on Fire.

About 7 o'clock this morning an alarm of fire called the brigade to the corner of Moira and Coleman sts. A chimney blaze, which did no damage, was the cause of the alarm.

CURLIANA.

In the Midland District Curling Association matches, Peterborough and Campbellford went into the final and they will play off for the championship at Newwood on Friday evening.

Two local rinks are talking of a trip to Espanie and Kingston. They would play Newques in the afternoon and Kingston in the evening.

The Concert is Off.

Doing to some misunderstanding in the matter the concert to be tendered by Mr. Phil Harrison has been called off.

A HUNDRED LIVES LOST

By Explosion on U. S. Battleship Maine at Havana.

TWO OF THE OFFICERS MISSING.

The Explosion was Terrific—The Ship at the Bottom—Spaniards Aided in the Rescue—Cause of Explosion Unknown—Wounded are Being Cared For.

(Special to the INTELLIGENCER.)

Havana, Feb. 16.—The warship "Maine" lies at the bottom of the Harbor, a target for 100 of her crew. She was blown up at 9:40 o'clock last night by an explosion well forward under the main's quarters.

Her magazines are further back between her coal bunkers.

Some of the watch and a few of her officers and crew were killed outright. The explosion was terrific, shaking the city to its foundations, illuminating the harbor and causing terror to all within sight and hearing.

Five minutes after the explosion the "Alfonso XII," Spanish cruiser, lying not far away, launched boats and hurried them to the sinking battleship. They picked up the wounded sailors and those who were swimming.

The wounded, as soon as they were brought ashore, were taken on stretchers to the casado Sorcerer, where all the physicians in Havana were summoned.

It is believed that all the officers were saved, but two are not accounted for.

The cause of the explosion is not yet known.

Carnival To-Night.

Old Probs. promised a beautiful weather to enjoy the grand Fancy Dress Carnival this evening. The committees have arranged for good accommodation for spectators and a good attendance is expected from outside points. New ice, new music and new costumes. Gates open at 7:30. Admission, 10c.

THE CAMPAIGN.

The Conservatives will Sweep the Quinte District.

Careful enquiry among intelligent and reliable men, and advice from correspondents in all parts of the counties of Hastings and Prince Edward, induce us to believe that the Conservatives will carry the four constituencies, which will be a gain of three seats, or six on a division.

As to the return of Mr. Morrison in West Hastings and Mr. Allen in North Hastings, the question is only as to the number of their majorities.

Mr. Stokes has developed even greater strength than was anticipated by his most ardent friends. His fitness, as a highly capable and progressive farmer, to represent an agricultural constituency, his genial manner, evident ability, and knowledge of public affairs, have won for him golden opinions, and the reports from all parts of the riding are favorable beyond anticipation, and presage a large majority for him.

From Prince Edward the reports are almost equally favorable. Mr. W. Ryerson Dempsey, the Conservative standard bearer, is a man who is known and highly respected in all parts of the county. He is a fine type of the Canadian farmer and fruit grower, and is much better qualified to represent those great interests in the Legislature than is either of his opponents.

Our information leads us to the conclusion that Mr. Dempsey will represent Prince Edward in the next Legislature of Ontario.

There is every possible encouragement for the supporters of Mr. Whitney to work until the close of the polls on March 1st, and we feel confident that they will not neglect that duty.

Campaign Notes.

To-night in Albert Hall the Central and Ward Committees met. All Conservatives are invited to be in attendance.

The Grits held a pow-wow at Trenton last evening, but a man from Trenton to-day said the meeting was a frost compared with Mr. Morrison's last Friday evening. Mr. Bigger made an excellent speech from a Conservative point of view and substantially increased Mr. Morrison's majority in Trenton.

Entertained McNish.

Frank McNish, the well-known minstrel man, was in the city last evening with the Bon-Ton company. He is an old friend of Paul Landon, and remembering his many kindnesses to Belleville's famous basso, the members of the Quinte Musical Club entertained Mr. McNish in their rooms after the performance. He was delighted with the Club and expressed his appreciation of their hospitality.

Do You Smell Onions?

"What's that I smell?" inquired a drummer as he walked up Front at last evening. "Is it a smell or a tune?" "Well, you're pretty near right," remarked a citizen, who was walking with him. The fact is the whole town has been wondering for several days where the odor of onion-soup comes from. The same is not far to seek. R. J. Graham, co-operating large quantities of this highly aromatic vegetable for the Klondike trade.

Conservative Leader.

THE COMING ELECTION.

WHITNEY Will win!
HARDY'S DEFEAT Will be guaranteed!
MORRISON For West Hastings!

STOKES For East Hastings!
ALLEN For North Hastings!
DEMSEY For Prince Edward!
ELECTORS Don't forget these facts!

WHITNEY AND MATHESON.

They Will Speak in Belleville To-morrow Night.

Mr. J. P. Whitney, Q.C., the leader of the Conservative party in Ontario, and Col. Matheson, the financial critic of the party, will address a public meeting in the opera house to-morrow night.

The distinguished visitors will arrive from the west by the 12:10 p.m. train, and will hold a reception at the Hotel Quinte from 4 p.m. until 5 p.m. All supporters of Mr. Whitney's policy are invited.

The mass meeting will be opened at 8 o'clock p.m., and an invitation is extended to all citizens who desire to hear the issues of the contest discussed.

Short addresses will be delivered by the candidates for the constituencies in the district and by Mr. Henry Corby, M.P.

It is hoped that a number of ladies will attend. Seats will be reserved for them.

PERSONAL FRIENDSHIP

BLEEKER ASKS WHAT HE WOULD NOT HIMSELF CONCEDE.

In beseeching Conservatives to vote for him on the ground of personal friendship, Mr. Henry G. Bleeker is asking what he himself refused to grant in the case of a political opponent.

In 1891 Mr. Bleeker stated to Mr. Henry Corby that he would not support him, although inclined to do so on personal grounds, because Mr. Clute had done more to advance the interests of his party than any other Reformer in this riding.

Mr. Bleeker held, then, in 1891 that party service was the proper ground on which to vote in a political contest.

In view of that fact, is it not inconceivable that some people might not altogether inappreciate it for him to ask Conservatives to vote for him, for a reason upon which he refused to act in 1891?

There is a lesson in this for Conservatives that it hardly needs further words to enforce, and that is, Do not vote for Mr. Bleeker for "personal" reasons.

Mr. Morrison has done everything for the Conservative party in West Hastings that it was possible for him to do.

Mr. Corby has done more for the Conservative party in this riding than Mr. Clute ever did for the Liberal party.

Mr. Corby asks every elector who would vote for him, if he were the candidate, to cast their ballots for M. B. Morrison, the Conservative candidate.

With Mr. Bleeker, as with many others, "it makes all the difference whose ox is yoked."

As he did in 1891—vote for the candidate who has done the most for your party in West Hastings.

WHITNEY WILL WIN.

A HARDY PAPER MAKES A CANDID STATEMENT.

The Toronto Star, which is a warm supporter of the Conservative Government, and in its issue of the 15th inst.

"As far as the contest is worked in a general way, the Opposition seems to be having the best of the fight. Mr. J. P. Whitney is certainly making a big effort. The Opposition, with its double-headed sword, is long and difficult to parry from place to place, and the people of the province, on the other hand, the Ministers are having a splendid campaign."

They are not bombing themselves. They have been very successful in the better men, but that saving of victory, the proud boasting which accompanies the victorious party, and has its effect in the country, is absent.

"It is all in all the line. The Conservatives advertise themselves on every occasion. Mr. Whitney never loses an opportunity of taking a newspaper man aside and telling him in his own courteous way, that he will win, and he says it in such a manner that people come to the conclusion that he believes it himself. But a newspaper man cannot get into a Minister's Cabinet. Mr. Whitney is the Minister says quickly that he believes it is all right, and rings his bell for his Secretary to show in an influential person from South Gloucester."

SMALL BUSINESS.

The Ontario Government are not only straining every nerve to gain votes in this district, but their friends at Ottawa are also pulling every string that is possible in order to help them. About a month ago a correspondent informed us, several of the parties living along the Trent river took their money for a general election license to fish in the Trent river to Mr. Green, the Inspector at Stirling, and Mr. Green took their money and sent it to the Department in Ottawa. It was returned to Mr. Green with a letter from the Department saying that in no case would any license to fish be granted and to take no man's money for that purpose. In the meantime these fishermen, who live along the Trent, being all good Grits, must have got Mr. Bryon, the Grit candidate in North Hastings, to act in their behalf and bring some pressure on the Ontario Government to reverse this order and let them fish, as a few days ago a letter arrived at Stirling from the Department to Inspector Green, instructing him to give all who live along the Trent river licenses and to take their money again for such. This is more of the dirty work of the Tories than to gain a few votes for Lord and the aspirant in the Grit interest in East Northumberland. They are evidently prepared to forfeit every interest, however ruinous it may be to the country, to keep hold of these purse strings of this Ontario of ours. But they will not succeed.

ONTARIO'S MINING POLICY CON- DEMNED.

At the present time in Canada there are two separate bureaus for the collection of mineral statistics from British Columbia and Ontario. The former is a very creditable institution, and is conducted in a thoroughly competent manner, but the latter leaves much to be desired.

As illustrative of such evils (ignorant legislation) it is only necessary to point to the mining laws of the Province of Ontario, which are greatly inferior to those prevailing in British Columbia, owing to the introduction of certain measures which give the genuine mining prospector is placed at a distinct disadvantage.

Where any real proof of mineral value of ground has been given, I consider that the Government should always insist that, in order to hold the title, the owners should carry out thereon annually some reasonable amount of mining work. This is the case in British Columbia, but in Ontario large blocks of claims are held by the payment of small sums, no work is necessarily done on them, and prospecting work is in a very backward condition.—From London, Eng., Mining Journal.

YUKON RAILWAY BILL.

Mr. Blair then rose to move the second reading of the Canadian Railway Bill. He said two propositions were admitted on both sides of the House and in the first country. The first proposition should be constructed into the Yukon; the second that the work demanded immediate attention. He (Mr. Blair) admitted that the Government would have failed in its duty if it had not provided for the immediate construction of the railway. Admitting these propositions, what remained? First of all, there was the question of route. Some doubt might be expressed as to which route had chosen the most favorable route, but the more the matter was considered, the clearer it would be seen that the Government had made the only possible selection, admitting that the railway must be built at once. Undoubtedly the Chilkoot route presented greater commercial advantages than the other, but that line could not be built under two years, and then there would be the question of the route to be built in territory presently occupied by the United States. The same objections

He (Mr. Blair) admitted that the Government would have failed in its duty if it had not provided for the immediate construction of the railway. Admitting these propositions, what remained? First of all, there was the question of route. Some doubt might be expressed as to which route had chosen the most favorable route, but the more the matter was considered, the clearer it would be seen that the Government had made the only possible selection, admitting that the railway must be built at once. Undoubtedly the Chilkoot route presented greater commercial advantages than the other, but that line could not be built under two years, and then there would be the question of the route to be built in territory presently occupied by the United States. The same objections

Mr. Blair then rose to move the second reading of the Canadian Railway Bill. He said two propositions were admitted on both sides of the House and in the first country. The first proposition should be constructed into the Yukon; the second that the work demanded immediate attention. BLAIR AND SIFTON GOT DRUBBING.

Sir Charles Tupper Gave Them a Severe Castigation.

The Minister of Railways Opened the Debate on the Second Reading of the Yukon Bill, and Got All Tangled Up.

First—Sifton to the Rescue, and He Will Return to It to-night.

Ottawa, Feb. 16.—The debate on the second reading of the Yukon Railway bill has fairly commenced, and for the next two or three weeks there will be hardly anything discussed in the House except Yukon affairs in one shape or the other.

The first order of precedence in the common-sense of the House, Sir Wilfrid Laurier to move the resolution of which he had given notice, authorizing an enquiry by a committee of the House into the Drummont County Railway matters, but upon a minor, more restricted, scale than the Senate proposal contemplated.

Suggestion by Sir Charles.

Sir Charles Tupper suggested that if the Government's intention was to remove every cloud of suspicion in regard to this transaction, the Premier should unambiguously in his resolution, and in the notice of it in the Senate, that would be satisfactory to the House and the country, whereas, if the enquiry were to be introduced, as proposed in the present resolution, it would lead to the introduction of a bill by the Government. As the initiative had been taken in the Senate, it ought to be continued there, and he suggested would be the better one.

Otherwise, he would suggest as an alternative that the words "by the Parliament of Canada" be struck out.

Sir Wilfrid replied that the committee had been moved for after very careful consideration, and with a view to get at the full truth by investigation.

Let the enquiry be extended into its transactions with any Government, suggested Sir Charles Herbert Tupper.

We have gone to answer for our own side, surely," replied the Premier.

The Amendment Accepted.

Finally, after some discussion, the first amendment suggested by the Opposition leader, to strike out the words "by the Parliament of Canada," was accepted, and the resolution adopted.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier: Resolved, that a special committee of the House be appointed to enquire into the expenditure of the subsidies granted in aid of the construction of the Drummont County Railway, and into all negotiations and transactions between the Government of Canada and any number or officer thereof or any person in its behalf, and the Drummont County Railway Company or any director, officer or person in the company's behalf, relating to the acquiring of the said railway by the Government, with power to send for papers, persons and records, and to report the evidence to this House, together with the opinion of the said committee thereon.

The committee will be composed of Messrs. Lister, Carroll, McLean, Morrison, Huggart, Borden (Halifax) and Powell.

The Yukon Land Grant.

Mr. Blair's motion for committee stage tomorrow on the resolution to grant 600 acres of land in the Territory for each mile of railway from the Stikine River to Toke Lake was adopted.

In reply to Mr. Montague, Mr. Blair said that the resignation of Mr. J. G. Galbraith of Port Colborne, an employee on the Welland Canal, had come to him, and had been handed to the Deputy Minister in the usual way. He would now state that Mr. Galbraith was a candidate for the Ontario Legislature.

Mr. McNeill, rising to a personal explanation, presented a statement made by Mr. McNeill in the House last Friday that he (Mr. McNeill) had garbled certain extracts which he had read from a speech by Mr. Chamberlain.

YUKON RAILWAY BILL.

Mr. Blair then rose to move the second reading of the Canadian Railway Bill. He said two propositions were admitted on both sides of the House and in the first country. The first proposition should be constructed into the Yukon; the second that the work demanded immediate attention. He (Mr. Blair) admitted that the Government would have failed in its duty if it had not provided for the immediate construction of the railway. Admitting these propositions, what remained? First of all, there was the question of route. Some doubt might be expressed as to which route had chosen the most favorable route, but the more the matter was considered, the clearer it would be seen that the Government had made the only possible selection, admitting that the railway must be built at once. Undoubtedly the Chilkoot route presented greater commercial advantages than the other, but that line could not be built under two years, and then there would be the question of the route to be built in territory presently occupied by the United States. The 10-cent Estimate of Mr. Ross Shown to be Fallacious.

Chatham, Feb. 17.—Mr. F. Ross, chairman of the Board of Water Commissioners, was among the citizens to whom Mr. Pardo, Reform candidate, franked the famous campaign pamphlet treating of the Ross educational system.

The nineteen-cent estimate of the average cost per pupil for school books under the Ross regime is shown to be a ridiculously wide of the mark that he called a reporter's attention thereto, and proceeded to demonstrate its absurdity, taking his own case as illustration. He is the father of five children who attend school. For their books he has paid out this year as follows:

Magistrate Flint's Court.

JAN. H. MEURER AGAIN ACQUITTED.

Magistrate Flint gave judgment this morning in the case of W. P. McMahon vs. Jas. H. Meurer. It will be remembered that Mr. McMahon charged Mr. Meurer with the larceny of two muck or robes. After reviewing the case at some length the Magistrate acquitted Mr. Meurer of the charge for the second time. He ordered the return of the robes to the deft., as he had no jurisdiction to do otherwise.

Found a Silver Mine.

Robert Maguire, of Hungerford, some time since lost a number of silver coins in his barn yard, and, much to his surprise, while the good wife was dressing a turkey, discovered part of his silver mine in a corner. Three ten and three five cent pieces were found, all being quite smooth and constant wearing against other stuff that the greedy bird had swallowed.

Pictou, Ont., Feb.—Dr. J. M. Platt, coroner for Prince Edward, held an inquest on the body of Henry H. Haigh, who was killed on Monday, Feb. 17, by being run over near Pictou while on his way home to Milford. The jury returned the following verdict:—“Henry H. Haigh's death was caused by the negligent driving of Byron Harrison and Philip Keller, and it was the team driven by Philip Keller which ran over Haigh. Both men were placed under arrest, and given bail to appear before Police Magistrate Curry on Wednesday.”

Rev. H. W. Cowart, of this city, has been conducting relief services in Campbellford for the past two weeks with marked success. Of him the Herald says:—“Rev. Mr. Cowart is an able man in the pulpit, and the many laud illustrations he gives make his subjects plain and deeply interesting.”

Dangers of Delay.

If we were allowed to look in the future and see the fatal consequences that follow neglected colds, how differently would our course be guided. We would not wait until we were actually sick, but we would seek a cure; but with many like us, who neglect the common cold, we have allowed it to range upon our lungs, that we are now to our sorrow finding out. What follows a neglected cold? It is the disease of the throat and lungs, bronchitis, asthma, consumption, and many other diseases of the nature. It is worse than measles to neglect a cold, and it is better to be so than to be so long after it is too late to do so. A cold is a very common ailment, and it is very easily cured. It is a very common ailment, and it is very easily cured. It is a very common ailment, and it is very easily cured.

It is easier to be good than great—there is less opposition.

At Death's Door. Dyspepsia (indigestion) is a great medical trouble. I am a medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Vegetable Discovery. My case was one of the worst of its kind. I was so weak that I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 150 lbs. to 110 lbs. All the time I was taking this medicine I felt like a new man. I was so weak that I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 150 lbs. to 110 lbs. All the time I was taking this medicine I felt like a new man. I was so weak that I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 150 lbs. to 110 lbs. All the time I was taking this medicine I felt like a new man.

The sun shines on all, but the sleeping car porter does not get a quarter. Truly deaf—Mr. S. E. Crandell, Port Perry, writes: "I contracted a severe cold last winter which resulted in my becoming totally deaf in one ear and partially so in the other. After trying various remedies, and consulting several doctors, I obtained no relief. I was advised to try Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. I administered the oil, and poured a little into my ear, and before long the bottle was used up. My hearing was completely restored. I have heard of the cure of deafness being cured by the use of this medicine."

Poems often come to roost—if accompanied by a return envelope. Dogs are annually taxed two dollars each in Paris; but pups are exempt until they are weaned.

Cholera morbus, cramps and kindred complaints annually make their appearance at the same time as the hot weather, green fruit, cucumbers, melons, etc., and many persons are debilitated by eating these tempting fruits, but they need not abstain. They have Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Vegetable Cordial, and take a few drops in water. If cramps and cholera in a remarkable manner, and is sure to cure every instance.

A man has a rattling old time when he throws dice for the drinks. How to Cure Headache—Some people suffer untold misery day after day with headache. There is not a cure for it until the nerves are all unstrung. The cause is generally disordered stomach, and a cure can be effected by using Parnell's P.Q. Pills, containing Mandrake and Belladonna. Mr. J. D. Kellogg's Vegetable Cordial, and take a few drops in water. If cramps and cholera in a remarkable manner, and is sure to cure every instance.

Love and war go hand in hand. Even the din of battle has a sort of engagement ring. The proprietors of Parnell's Pills are making a record in the following: Mr. John A. Bann, Waterloo, Ont., writes: "I never used any medicine to cure a cold, but I used Parnell's Pills for dyspepsia or Liver and Kidney complaints. The relief experienced after using them was wonderful. I was so weak that I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 150 lbs. to 110 lbs. All the time I was taking this medicine I felt like a new man. I was so weak that I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 150 lbs. to 110 lbs. All the time I was taking this medicine I felt like a new man."

It is the smallest thing of life that is most annoying. Even the little mosquito bites on a forehead—Cholera morbus. For any case of nervousness, sleeplessness, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia, or any other ailment, use Parnell's Pills. The only nerve medicine for the price in the market.

No one can fear cholera, or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Vegetable Cordial ready for use. It is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and it is a medicine that is a cure for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.

ONTARIO'S NEXT PREMIER.

Mr. Whitney is a man of charming manner, and is said to be one of the most voracious readers in Eastern Ontario. His wide literary tastes are apparent in his speeches.—The Globe, Dec. 4th, 1897.

SNAP SHOTS AT TIMELY TOPICS.

"I cannot carry the Riding."

H. G. Blocker, Hardy's candidate in West Hastings.

—Canada's Timber for Canadians is Whitney's policy.

—Mr. Whitney would win, even without the local Grit tomorrow written nightly.

—The sidewalks yesterday and this morning were as slippery as a Grit political platform.

—The Hardy Government has no surplus. You can prove it by their own official documents.

—If Hardy's Government has a surplus why do they pay a large interest to the banks on borrowed money?

—"Morrison was once a Liberal: pitch into him boys!"—Blocker's stuff.—Grit-campaign cry in West Hastings.

—Mr. Whitney will give the people an educational policy whereby the parents of children will not be robbed regularly by expensive fees and school books.

—Mr. Whitney will give you a timber policy that will benefit the Ontario people and not the United States, as it has done under Mowat and Hardy.

—If, by any mischance, the Ontario Government should remain Grit, the Ontario Government being also Grit, the country will be robbed worse than ever.

—Mr. Whitney has a sound policy which makes the Liberals quake with fear and nervousness all over Ontario, while on the other hand Hardy's policy is intimidation, jobbery, misrepresentation and general extravagance.

—"Friendship" Blocker the "Biggar" little man from Sidney, who "can't carry the riding," will also tell you how many he has not got in Trenton and Belleville, and how dearly he would like to have them, even though it takes all Biggar's $1,000 to secure them.

—Mr. Bertram will tell you what a splendid educational policy Mr. Hardy has how beneficial it is to the publishers of the school books, they being friends of the Hardy-Ross Administration. Therefore it is "very wise" to change the books often and make the people pay up, whether they can afford it or not.

—Sage counsels have prevailed with the Conservative workers, and they have quit saying that everything was over but the cheering. They have settled down to work and reports from the country begin to tell a different tale. There is no need of fear now.

—Mr. Bertram, the Toronto gentleman, is under the direction of D. B. B. and Co., and will be one of the most gorgeous and amusing entertainments ever seen in this city. The book of "The Isle of Champagne" is by Charles Alfred Bryce and Louis Harrison and music by Gustav Kerkor. It is bright and catchy throughout. The opera has been playing the capacity of each theatre we ever presented this season, and will doubtless do the same here. Seats should be secured at once.

ANOTHER FAILURE.

Caverhill, Hughes & Co. Grocers, Assign With Liabilities of $100,000.

Montreal, Feb. 18.—(Special.)—Henry Hughes, doing business under the style of Caverhill, Hughes and Company, wholesale grocers, have assigned. The liabilities will be between $70,000 and $100,000.

False Representations.

An Ontario Lady Compels a Merchant to Pay for Damages.

A lady writing from an Ontario town says: "I bought one of your town stores and asked for three ounces of Diamond Dye Navy Blue for dyeing all wool goods. The merchant informed me that he had not of Navy Blue in the Diamond Dye, and talked me into buying a dye of another make, at the same time guaranteeing them to do as good work as I could get from the Diamond. A lady friend was with me at the time and heard the whole conversation. I took the dyes home, and then according to directions, and was sadly disappointed with the results. The color was anything but a Navy; in truth, my materials were spoiled. I at once took the goods to the merchant and told him my dye were faulty. He offered to give me more of the same dyes or my money back, refused both offers, and after I had threatened law proceedings he offered to pay for the materials spoiled. This merchant will never again have the chance to do me any more dye. I shall go where I can get the Diamond Dye at any time when they are wanted. I have had my last lesson with poor dye."

Wall Papers.

That were 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, 40, 45 and 50¢ now only 10¢ and 15¢. Papers that ranged as high as 35¢ now only 5¢ at Montclair's sale.

—In 1886 and in 1890 Sir Oliver Mowat warned the people of Ontario of the danger in his belief—of having the same party in power at Toronto and Ottawa. Those who proclaimed Sir Oliver's doctrine, with their distinguished approval, now say Sir Oliver's warning was directed against the "wicked Tories" only. Truly "it makes all the difference whose ox was goaded."

—The Midway Fair talks about big majorities for Blocker in Belleville and Sidney and a tie in Trenton. How can a newspaper which publishes such falsehoods, knowing them to be such, expect that anything that it says can be credited or have any effect on the result of the election?

—When the Conservatives were in power at Ottawa Sir Oliver Mowat saw in power there should be a Conservative Government in Ontario also. Now that there is a Liberal Government at Ottawa, Sir Oliver's Mr. Hardy still wants the Liberals to control the affairs of the Province. Sir Oliver's Mr. Hardy, by the will of the people, will have to step down and out.

—Mr. Allen, the candidate from the north, had nothing to say. He was simply dumb, and there is no doubt that he will continue to play the silent role in the drama of elections.

—So says the down town mixer and muller in the daily and almost wholly untruthful comments on Mr. Whitney's great meeting. Mr. Allen was not present. Will the bemuddled fictionist retract?

—If any supporter of the Hardy Government believes that he can prove that they have prudently, and with a due regard for economy, administered the finances of Ontario, and that they have a surplus of assets over the total liabilities, the INTELLIGENCER will give him one column of space in which to state the facts in regard to the matter. And space, let it be added, is particularly valuable at present.

—In 1896 the Grits shouted "It's time for a change!" in the case of the Conservatives at Ottawa, who had been in office for 15 years. In 1898, when the Conservatives echo that cry—invented by a Grit—against the Grits at Toronto, who have been in power for 26 years, the Grits cry out, "It isn't time for a change!" It is a poor rule that won't work both ways.

—Our lowest down-town contemporary remarks on the INTELLIGENCER's comments on Mr. Hardy's timber policy: "It has forgotten, apparently, that on March 1st a regulation takes effect requiring 'all logs to be cut in Canada.'"

Another bad break! Evidently the "yellow fellow" was not capable of understanding Mr. Whitney's statement, which was that the new regulation will take effect on the expiration of the present license by the province. The Act is not in the meantime, "reserved" or disallowed by Mr. Hardy's friends of the Dominion Government. And everybody, except silly ignoramus, knows that the license year expires April 30th. In fact, Mr. Whitney so stated clearly and unmistakably.

The Labor Question.

To the Editor of the INTELLIGENCER.

DEAR SIR,—Will you without any preliminary introduction and for the reasons mentioned I cannot support the Ontario Government.

1st. Because they are too slow in granting equal legislation to the laboring people the same as business people.

2nd. They at their last session remained silent on a petition presented by W. H. Bigger for the abolishing of market restrictions. The petitioners were composed of a part of the cream of the working people of this city, and although composed of the same kind of people that would constitute a jury in any Court of Justice, nevertheless their verdict was disapproved by the Hardy Government at Toronto.

3rd. Although the working people are looking for eight hours a day for six days in a week, nevertheless they have encouraged seven long working days a week by withstanding the Sunday Observance Bill.

4th. Their last session kept right on during the Christmas holidays, when all other christian people were enjoying Christmas at home.

5th. It has not so far apologized to the laboring people that have been trying to civilize their Legislators this twenty six years for all sorts of wrongs, political and legislative for mankind's sake, which latter has been granted until last session.

6th. They gave away the people's money to monopolies without taking stock of the amount of money they gave away to the people.

7th. They have granted a large appropriation to an unnecessary Normal School. If the same amount was set aside for a pension for all our kept out old people out of prison, it would be better used.

The Campaign in the Three Hastings' and Prince Edward.

Never before in the history of Hastings and Prince Edward have the election campaigns in the interest of the Conservative candidates been prosecuted with such vigor as at present, and it may truthfully be said that never have the electors in the four ridings been so determined to have a change in the administration of the affairs of the Province as at present.

MEETING AT TRENTON.

At Trenton on Saturday evening Mr. Morrison's large committee rooms were packed to the doors with the leading citizens of the town to listen to a number of spirited addresses.

Mr. A. A. Abbott occupied the chair and Messrs. J. S. Donoh, P. J. O'Rourke, M. B. Morrison, W. O. Mikel and N. B. Falkner delivered short addresses. Mr. Morrison's friends were putting up a good fight and will give him a big majority on March 1st.

MEETING AT ROSSMORE.

A splendid meeting was held at Rossmore on Saturday evening in the interest of Mr. W. B. Dempsey, who could not be present, owing to an engagement in another part of the county.

Mr. Wesley Wessie occupied the chair and spirited speeches were made by Messrs. Willoughby Anderson, Reeve W. E. Anderson, H. Corry, M.P., W. B. Northrup and R. Croft Hulme.

AT ROSSMORE.

Messrs. J. W. Johnson and W. O. Mikel addressed a large and enthusiastic gathering of electors at Rossmoreville in the interest of Mr. Dempsey on Friday evening last. Although the village is in Mr. Sprague's, the Grit nominees, strong hold, Mr. Dempsey will poll a big vote there. The Grits and Patrons don't know where they are, with the rumors that are flying about as to the withdrawal of Mr. Sprague and Mr. Cavan.

MEETING THIS EVENING.

A meeting of Mr. Morrison's supporters will be held this evening at the School House, Front of Sidney. The following gentlemen will address the electors: Messrs. W. O. Mikel, R. J. Graham, H. Corry, M.P., N. B. Falkner and M. B. Morrison.

At Roblin's Mill a meeting will be held in the interest of Mr. W. B. Dempsey. Messrs. Dempsey, W. B. Northrup and S. Mason will speak.

Mr. W. J. Allen's supporters will gather at White Lake school house in Huntingdon this evening and will be addressed by Messrs. W. J. Allen, J. W. Johnson and A. F. Wood.

A meeting will be held in the interest of Mr. Stokes in Shamfield on Friday evening of this week, and another for Mr. Morrison at Trenton on Saturday evening.

A Little Mouse.

Much uneasiness and anxiety was occasioned at Miss Thomas' recital in Albert Hall on Saturday afternoon by the presence of a little mouse. The little fellow scampered about the feet of the audience and it was heartrending indeed to see the looks of terror depicted on the countenances of the ladies as they gathered their skirts closely around them and wailed in their confusion. One lady screamed twice in anticipation of the dread event, but the little fellow was several yards away.

Dangers of Delay.

If we were allowed to look in the future and see the fatal consequences that follow a neglected cold, how differently would our course be, only we could realize our danger, how speedily we would seek a cure, but with many it is only when the monster disease has fastened its fangs upon our lungs that we awaken to our folly. What follows a neglected cold is not a disease of the throat and lungs, bronchitis, asthma, consumption, and many other diseases of the system. It is a disease of the blood, and it is only when the monster disease has fastened its fangs upon our lungs that we awaken to our folly. What follows a neglected cold is not a disease of the throat and lungs, bronchitis, asthma, consumption, and many other diseases of the system. It is a disease of the blood, and it is only when the monster disease has fastened its fangs upon our lungs that we awaken to our folly.

It is easier to be good than great—there is less opposition. At Death's Door—Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Great Medical Triumph—Gentlemen, My medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Vegetable Dye. I was told that I was the worst of the kind. For three years I could not eat meat and my weight was only 110 to 115 lbs. All the food I took for three months previous to taking the Vegetable Dye consisted of milk, and I was entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, color, and vitality. I feel like a new man. I have sold thirty dozen Vegetable Dye, and I have cured many, and I am now using it in this section how long I was, and I can tell you that it is a great medicine. I am not exaggerating anything, but I feel that I am able to contribute this testimonial and trust it may be the means of convincing others of its merit as a cure for all diseases of the blood. (Signed) Jean Valcourt, General Merchant, Waton, P. Q.

The sun shines, but the sleeping porter does it for a quarter. Totally Dull—Mr. S. C. Grandell, Port Jervis, writes: "I contracted a severe cold last winter, which resulted in my becoming totally deaf in one ear and partially in the other. After trying various remedies, and consulting several doctors, without obtaining relief, I was advised to try Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Electric Oil. I warmed the Oil and poured a little into my ear, and before one-half the bottle was used my hearing was completely restored. I have heard of other cases of deafness being cured by the use of this medicine."

Poems often come home to roost—if accompanied by a return card. In Ports are annually taxed two dollar each in duty, but papers are exempt until they are wanted. Cholera morbus, cramps and kindred complaints annually make their appearance at the same time as the hot weather, green fruit, cucumbers, melons, etc., and many persons are debilitated from eating these tempting fruits, but they need not abstain if they have Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cord, and take a few drops of this medicine. It cures cramps and cholera in a remarkable manner, and is sure to check every disturbance.

A man has a rattling cold when he throws the dust on the drinks. How to Cure Headache—Some people suffer untold misery day after day with headache. There is rest neither day or night until the nerves are all strained. The cause is generally disordered stomach, and a cure can be effected by using Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Vegetable Pills, containing Mandarins and Dandelion. Mr. Finley Wark, Lyndhurst, P. Q., writes: "I suffered from this disease for several years, and I have been cured by the use of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Vegetable Pills."

Love and war go hand in hand. Even the din of battle has a sort of euphoric ring. The proprietors of Parmentier's Pills are constant receiving letters similar to the following, which explains itself. Mr. John A. Hoan, Waterloo, Ont., writes: "I never used any medicine that can equal Parmentier's Pills for dysentery or Liver and Kidney Complaints. The relief experienced after using them was wonderful. Parmentier's Pills are the only medicine for the price in the market."

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if he takes a small bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cord daily for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels, purges and cures. It is a medicine adapted for the young and old, and is a sure cure for cholera, dysentery, and all other diseases of the bowels. It is the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.

In Maine a dance held 90 years since a bicycle. That is what prohibition can do. Money Saved and pain relieved by the leading household remedy, Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Electric Oil—a small quantity of this useful oil suffices to cure a cough, cold, sore throat, or any other ailment of the throat, head, or chest. It is a sure cure for all these ailments, and is a household necessity. The oil is sold in small bottles for 10 cents each. It is a sure cure for all these ailments, and is a household necessity.

It is not necessary to let your children go to school with a pair of old boots. It won't pay you, when for 75c we can give you a pair of good solid boots either boys or girls.—Haines & Locke.

Holloway at Epworth League held a social last night for the members and others interested in the work. A highly pleasant evening was spent. Questions and answers were the main amusement, after which refreshments were served.

Are any of the people of this city looking for a pair of good boots? Well, we have them where you get them. Haines & Locke, 100 Front Street, have the best assortment and also the lowest prices, so that is the place to buy them.

Mr. Green, of Albert College, gave a stirring missionary address at the Tabernacle Epworth League last evening. A very pleasing treat was contributed by Mrs. (Prof.) Massey and Messrs. S. and G. Turner.

There is an exhibition in Mr. C. B. Scantlebury's window, a very artistic picture of the members of the Expositor Quartette. The picture is the property of Mr. J. Nevill Doyle and he intends presenting the same to the Quinte Musical Club.

In the Investment Bond of the Ontario Mutual many will find just what they require—a yearly income. Absolute safety, prompt payments and no worry. The Company's assets are nearly $1,000,000. S. Burrows, Agent.

In anticipation of the evangelist, Rev. Jesse which began next week, the Belleville Epworth League decided to hold a meeting to the consideration of "God winning the world." Mr. Holton spoke on the importance of this work, and Mr. Johnson spoke on how to win people to Christ. Both addresses were good and were listened to with interest by those present.

THE NOMINATIONS.

Formal Proceedings at the City Hall at Noon.

There was at no time between twelve and one o'clock to-day, the hour for the nomination of candidates for the Local Legislature, more than two hundred people in the City Hall, very little interest being apparently taken in the formal proceedings.

Constable Johnson called the meeting to order and Dr. Day, Returning Officer, called upon his Clerk, W. J. McCosmon, to read the writ, after which he called for nominations.

About 12:30 Mr. Morrison, Mr. Corby, M.P., Mr. J. S. Deuch and others entered the hall, which was the signal for applause for Mr. Morrison.

Mr. Corby, M.P., nominated, seconded by J. S. Deuch, M. B. Morrison, of Trenton, the Conservative candidate in West Hastings.

H. Pringle nominated, seconded by Jas. M. Farley, Henry G. Blocker, of Sidney, the Liberal candidate in West Hastings.

This concluded the nominations and the gathering broke up to meet at the opera house at 2 o'clock, where speeches are being made this afternoon. A full report will be given in to-morrow's paper.

Nervine is beyond comparison the greatest discovery for the relief of pain offered to the public.

Seventeenth Anniversary.

The City Mission celebrated its seventeenth anniversary last evening, but owing to the storm the attendance was not as large as on former occasions. Mr. W. W. Brown, president and the reports of the work in the different departments were most encouraging. Addresses were made by some of the workers and a testimony meeting followed. The speaker to-night, Mr. A. G. Northrup was unable to be present, which was much regretted, as he is deeply interested in the work. Mrs. Lake spoke and referred briefly to her daughter, Mrs. Bird, who is now in England on her way home from Africa, where she has been laboring for several years in the mission fields. She was a former teacher in the Mission Sunday School, and there was inspired with missionary zeal. Reference was also made to the late Robert Gordon, who was a faithful worker in the Mission also.

Two Warnings.

Losing flesh is one and lacking cough is another. If they come together the warning is a bad one. Scott's Emulsion does some of its best work in just these cases. It prevents consumption.

THE LIBERAL MEETING

Mr. Geo. H. Bertram, M.P., the Principal Speaker.

Mr. John G. Frost Explains the Post Office Changes—Mr. Blocker's Cold Justice—The Speakers Declared the Surplus was all Right.

The Liberals held a meeting in the opera house last evening and while the attendance was nothing like as large as that of the Whig meeting on Thursday evening last, still the house was fairly well filled. Those in charge had the "Oldfellow" band to play on the corner of Front and Bridge sts., and then march to the opera house in order to draw an audience. The speakers were given a fair hearing, except that some boys from time to time hissed Mr. Bertram and others.

Some of those on the stage were: John G. Frost, C. Russell, W. R. Aylsworth, Thos. Ritchie, Y. Narmley, Dr. Farley, W. B. Robinson, Ald. Wallace, D. R. Leavens, Jas. Caldwell, Ald. Petty, Ald. Lott, R. Templeton, H. Pringle, J. L. Bigger, A. G. Vermylen, F. Landenberg, W. O. Farley, John McIntosh, Wm. McIntosh, D. V. Sinclair, Ald. Luscombe, W. H. Bigger, M.P.P., ex-Ald. Robinson, C. F. Aylsworth, Mado.

John William, President of the West Hastings Liberal Association, occupied the chair. In a speech that lasted some twenty minutes he praised the Government and belittled Mr. Bertram and his colleagues.

Mr. John G. Frost was the next speaker and was introduced as the man who nearly defeated the late Alex. Robertson. After touching upon several issues of the campaign and points that had nothing to do with the matters under discussion, he took up the recent changes in the post office staff. He said he was one of those parties who tried to have the post office in Belleville kept under the Civil Service Act, but that Mr. Mulock, after considering the whole matter carefully, had decided that it would be impossible to retain the Belleville office and others in cities of about the same size under the Act and reduced them to the status of town offices. (Mr. Frost knew that such was not the case. He knew that Belleville was the only office in Canada reduced, while Windsor, Sherbrooke, Fredericton, Charlottetown, and other offices, which earned less revenue than the local office were still under the Civil Service Act.) It is so far as the dismissal of the young lady was concerned, Mr. Mulock had nothing to do with it. He thought the Executive of the R-form Association were not too greedy in appointing two clerks out of a staff of eight, and allowing the Postmaster to appoint the rest. Speaking of the two candidates for West Hastings, he said with all seriousness that Mr. Morrison was a former soldier for four years and had given his friends and neighbors no good reason for changing his views. He claimed that Blocker had never taken politics for municipal matters.

Mr. S. Russell was introduced by the chairman as the future member for East Hastings. He came forward in a somewhat halting manner and spoke in a tone, as if he heard him expressed it, better suited to a country schoolhouse. His speech was not so good as dry as a desert. The audience gave a sigh of relief when the Chairman handed him a note to inform him that he had spoken long enough, and he soon subsided.

Mr. G. Blocker got a warm reception upon rising. He said he had a lot of friends who had urged upon him the position of candidate. He wanted the invitation to take back the statement that he had said he could not carry the riding. What he claimed he said was that he could not carry the riding, but he had the people with him. He said he was running his own show and did not have Mr. Corby at his back. There was laughter and cries of "Hear, Hear," when he said he would not go into the issues of the day, as the audience was already weary by the speeches that had been made. He wound up by saying that he had no ground for fault finding, except in some little details. That about sums up his whole speech.

Dr. J. M. Platt, of Pictou, made a few rambling remarks and the meeting broke up with the usual cheer.

Odd Pants.

The Oak Hall have just placed in stock a lot of odd pants, made of men's and youths' old pants at $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50. These goods are extra value, some are heavy and some light in weight, all are guaranteed to be a really good pair for your suit, probably a pair of pants to go with your fairly good coat and vest would not go amiss.

The Masquerade Ball.

There was a gala time at the "Oldfellow" Hall last evening, the occasion being the Masquerade Ball. There were about twenty couples present, and there were a number of very pretty costumes worn. The cake walk created no end of amusement for those present. Music was supplied by Chas. H. Haines and his band. Mr. J. R. Gorow acted as Master of Ceremonies.

Don't forget these facts!

TWENTY REASONS FOR A CHANGE.

It is time for a change. Why?

1. Because twenty-six years is too long for any Government to hold power. The authority for this is Attorney-General Longley, of Nova Scotia, a Reformer.

2. Because it is not a good thing to have Governments at Ottawa and Toronto of the same political party. Authority—Sir Oliver Mowat.

3. Because of the centralizing policy of the Hardy Government, which has been going on for so long a time.

4. Because of the needless increase in the number of representatives in the Legislature, by which at least $100,000 of the people's money is wasted.

5. Because of the present Government's reckless extravagance, by which a surplus of $400,000 has been converted into a debt of over $5,000,000.

6. Because Mr. Harcourt is running this province behind at the rate of about $400,000 annually.

7. Because direct taxation is staring us in the face.

8. Because the cost of maintaining our public institutions has increased enormously under the Hardy Administration, although the cost of the necessities of life has gone down in price.

9. Because the Hardy Government tell us that they have a surplus, when they are actually in debt and falsifying the public accounts.

10. Because the Government persistently refuse to bring down proper public accounts and let us know where we stand.

11. Because of the Car-like and bureaucratic manipulation of the Education Department under the present Minister for political purposes.

12. Because of the exorbitant price of school books on account of monopolies and royalties.

13. Because of the juggling of the Government on the timber question on behalf of Michigan lumbermen and their passing of an unnecessary Act, when an Order-in-Council would have done, in order to hoodwink the people and in the hope that they would be dissatisfied by their friends at Ottawa.

14. Because of the shameful misappropriation of colonization road money, which go

FRIENDS PREVAILED

A Nervous Toronto Woman Walked

the Floor During the Night for Hours at a Time—She Makes a Statement.

TORONTO, ONT.—"I was tormented with nervousness. It was impossible for me to keep still and if the spasm came over me during the night I had to get up and walk the floor for hours at a time. My blood was very poor and I was liable to bluish attacks. My feet would swell and I was not able to do my own housework. I treated with two of the best physicians here but only received relief for a time. I became discouraged. One day a friend called and advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I bought at a drug store but I was prevailed upon and provided one bottle. Before I used it all I began to feel better. I took several bottles and also several boxes of Hood's Pills. Now I can eat and drink heartily and sleep soundly. Hood's Sarsaparilla and Sarsaparilla cured me and also strengthened me so that I now do all my own work. I cheerfully recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all sufferers from nervousness, weakness or general debility." Mrs. H. F. PARK, Ingersoll Street.

Hood's Pills cure liver, bowels, and stomach.

into the pockets of heels instead of on to the soles.

15. Because of the way the Grit Government have encroached on the revenues of the municipalities in the matter of liquor licenses and use the whole license system as a huge party machine.

16. Because the whole object, end, aim and ambition of every Grit member of Parliament seems to be to see how many Parliamentary questions he can ask and office? and finally, when he is sure of defeat, to get a good fat job for himself.

17. Mr. Dryden runs the Agricultural Farm and College for political purposes and wastes the money which should supply information to our farmers.

18. Because the Government went into competition with the farmers in raising hogs and sold diseased meat, for which a private citizen would be sent to jail.

19. Because of the increase in officialdom to such an alarming extent that, with their aid and assistance as election agents, the Hardy Government can almost defy popular opinion.

20. Because Mr. Hardy and his gang have proved themselves unable and unfit to run the affairs of this province and because Mr. Whitney and the able men associated with him are capable of giving us once more an honest, wise and economical administration.

Surely now is the time for a change.

COST OF EDUCATION.

In a speech delivered at a meeting in Cornwall a few weeks ago, Col. R. R. McLennan, M.P., brought out some telling points against the Hardy Government, in connection with the amount contributed from the Provincial Treasury towards the maintenance of the Public Schools. Col. McLennan pointed out that, while Mr. Ross, the Minister of Education, made loud boasts of what his department was doing for the support of these schools, the public records proved that it was entitled to very little credit for its share in their maintenance.

For instance, the Ontario Government contributes only 51 per cent. of the cost of the Public and Separate Schools of the province and the remaining 49 per cent. is paid by the municipalities and other sources. The cost per head of the population was $2.25 and of this the Government of Ontario contributed 13 cents per head, while the remaining $2.11 per head came from the municipalities, or in other words directly from the pockets of the people. In the province of Quebec, had all as our Grit friends say they have been, the Government pay 18 1/2 per cent. of the cost of the schools and the 18 1/2 per cent. comes from the municipalities and other sources. The cost per head of the population is $1.10, of which 20 cents per head is paid by the Government and 90 cents per head comes from the people through other sources. In the Maritime Provinces the Governments contribute 84 per cent. of the cost, the municipalities 6 1/2 per cent., or 62 cents per head of the population from the Government and 97 cents per head from the municipalities. In British Columbia the entire cost of education is paid by the Government, amounting to $2.37 per head of the population. These figures are from the official records of the different provinces and cannot be disputed. After all their talk about how much they do for education, their own published records show that they contribute only one-eighth of every dollar spent on the Public and Separate Schools of the Province. They take away from the people more than that in the extra cost of the school books which the children must have, and on which a monopoly has been given to put money into the pockets of their political friends, who contribute at election time towards the corruption fund that is used to try to keep this set of reckless and extravagant incompetents in power.

THE BURDEN OF OFFICIALISM.

It will surprise the average elector to know that there are no less than 7,133 officials in this Province appointed by the Mowat-Hardy Governments. Of these, 364 are provided with comfortable berths in the Legislative Buildings at Toronto, 4,586 are on the pay sheet of the Province in the outside service, and 2,183 are appointed by the Province to the Government, but paid directly by the people, either as salaries from the municipal treasuries or by fees collected from the public. The total amount of the salaries paid to officials in the Province in 1897 was $1,731,290.10. Under the John Sandfield Government, in 1870 the total cost of officials to the Province was $495,299.91, or less than one-third of the present burden which Mowat and Hardy have imposed upon the people. The increase and the enormous increase added to the actual salaries and wages make the amount in round figures $2,000,000. Again, to this may be added fully $1,000,000 more, paid by the municipalities and in fees by the people, which goes to the outside service. So that, in reality, the people of Ontario are called upon to pay $3,000,000 a year for salaries of officials, the number of whom are not required at all.

A year on every family in Ontario to pay the salaries of provincial officials alone.

The number of seasonal writers, messengers and pages employed in the Ontario Legislature at Toronto during the session of 1896, not including the permanent staff, was 121.

The number of seasonal clerks, messengers and pages employed in the House of Commons and the Senate at Ottawa during the session of 1896-97, the last session under Conservative rule, including French and English secretaries, was 142.

There are 213 members in the House of Commons and 74 in the Senate, making in all 287 representatives, for whose salaries 114 officials were employed.

In the Ontario Legislature there are 94 members, and these, under Mr. Hardy's economical management, had 121 officials placed at their service.

In 1870, the last year of the Sandfield Macdonald Administration, there were 88 members of the Legislature, and they were paid to get along very well with only 20

NOT SHOT FOR GOVERNMENT.

Mr. Maclean Attacks the Policy Regarding the Yukon.

The General Tendency to Encourage Monopolies Demanded Vigorously by the Member for East York—Transportation Problem Prominent Now—Hansard, October 10th, 1897.

October, Feb. 22.—The majority of questions on the order paper yesterday related to Yukon affairs in one form or another. Mr. Maclean told Mr. Laurier that there was no Indian title on the Yukon.

Mr. Laurier, in answer to Mr. C. H. Tupper, said the Government had the question of Canada's right to exclude or exclude the passage of vessels, right and wrong, in the United States through the territorial waters on the coast of British Columbia to the coast of Alaska, under consideration, but they did not deem it expedient, in the public interest, to make any announcement at this time.

Mr. Wallace was informed that customs duty was collected in the Yukon as follows: 1905, $1,872; 1906, $1,601; 1907, $1,372; 1908 to date, $83,834.

Mr. Maclean was Envoys.

Mr. Laurier asked: Does the Government intend to provide for the employment of Canadian labor only in the building of the Yukon Railway? Does the Government intend to use any sort of provision to ensure that Canadian labor only shall be employed in the construction of the railway? Does the Government intend to use any sort of provision to ensure that Canadian labor only shall be employed in the construction of the railway?

Mr. Laurier replied that the necessity for construction was immediately recognized. It was inadvisable to insist on the exclusion of foreign labor on this work. In the case of the Crow's Nest, the Government had no objection to the employment of foreign labor on this work.

Dangers of Delay.

If we were allowed to look in the future and see the fatal consequences that follow a neglected cold, how quickly would our course be changed? We would seek a cure, not only to save our health, but to save our lives. It is only when the monster disease has fastened the fangs upon our lungs, that we awaken to our folly. What follows is a neglected cold is not a disease of the throat and lungs, but a disease of the system, and many other diseases of like nature. It is worse than measles, scarlet fever, and it is fatal to have some good remedy available for this frequent complaint. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs, is Bick's and Consumptive Syrup. This medicine is composed of several medicinal herbs, which exert a powerful action in curing consumption and other diseases of the lungs and chest. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, soothes irritation and drives the disease from the system.

It is easier to be good than great—there is less opposition.

At Dr. J. D. Kellough's Dispensary, I have been cured of my cold. I was one of the worst of my kind. For three years I could not eat and my weight decreased from 210 to 110 lbs. All the food I took for this time went into my stomach and did me no good. I was nearly cured and had regained my usual weight, and felt like a new man. I have sold thirty dozen Vegetable Discovery since it cured me, as I am well and happy. I am not exaggerating anything, but feel glad to be able to testify to this fact, and trust it may be the means of convincing others of its merit as a certain cure for dyspepsia. (Signed) J. D. Kellough, General Merchant, Wotton, P. Q.

The sun shines for all, but the sleeping porter does not get a quarter.

Totally Deaf.—Mr. S. E. Crandell, Port Perry, writes: "I contracted a severe cold last winter which resulted in my becoming totally deaf in one ear and partially in the other. After trying various remedies, and consulting several doctors, without obtaining any relief, I was advised by Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. I purchased the oil and used a little into my ear, and before one-half the bottle was used my hearing began to return, and I have heard of other cases of deafness being cured by the use of this medicine."

Cholera morbus, cramps and kindred complaints usually make their appearance at the same time as the hot weather, green fruits, cucumbers, melons, etc., and many persons are deterred from eating these tempting fruits, but they are not to be deterred. If they have Dr. J. D. Kellough's Dysentery Cordial, and take a few drops in water. It cures cramps and cholera in a most reliable manner, and is a sure to every disturbance.

How to Cure Headache.—Some people suffer untold misery every day after day with headache. There is rest neither day or night until the nerves are all unstrung. The cause is generally a cold in the head, and a cure can be effected by using Parment's Vegetable Pills, which are sold by Dr. J. D. Kellough's Dispensary. Love and war go hand in hand. Even the din of battle has a sort of engagement ring. The proprietors of Parment's Pills are constant receiving letters similar to the following, which explains itself. Mr. John A. Jean, Waterloo, N. Y., writes: "I never used any medicine that can equal Parment's Pills for dyspepsia or Liver and Kidney Complaints. The relief experienced after using them was wonderful. As a safe family medicine Parment's Vegetable Pills can be given in all cases requiring a cathartic."

FIRE, ACCIDENT AND LIFE.

THE LEOPERS' GUEST.
A Story of the Pyrenees.
BY MAX FURBERTON.
Copyright, 1897.
WHEN I looked for nothing but instant death, for such a death as I had just experienced, I was not prepared for the short crisis was unmitigated. The face of the host of the hotel, who stood before me, was a face of a man who had been a hundred times with the last of blood and murder.

The very thought moved me to a dogged and obstinate determination to strike one blow for my life. Quick as light I set my foot against the wall and covered the first of the Pyrenees with my pistol. As he tried to raise his hand, I raised his arm to strike me, I shot him through the shoulder, and his second and third discharges struck him in the chest, and he fell back a second and a third time, and he lay on the floor, his head on the wall, and his arms outstretched.

For an instant the title of the assassin rolled back. A flash, as the host of the hotel, fell upon me, and I heard the host's voice, loud and sonorous, as he called upon his men to come down. I heard a new and angrier roar of refusal, and then as the mob gathered itself together for a last great rush, I, a sudden, moved by one of the host's ideas which came to me in the hour of danger, sprang headlong from the gallery to the main entrance, and the host's side even before those who pressed upon me had marked my intention.

For a moment I looked upon the crowd, I, an Englishman, and you people will not for this night's work.

"What do you here, then?" he asked, turning upon me a pair of eyes horribly bloodshot and waiting.

"I was passing through the mountains, and I came for a night's shelter. I was, friends as they were, looking for a place to-morrow. There is my passport."

It was a terrible moment. The crowd, which had been waiting for me, now looked upon me with a different eye. I saw about me hundreds of wild eyes and horrible faces, and I saw that they were all looking at me with a different eye.

They were all looking at me with a different eye. I saw about me hundreds of wild eyes and horrible faces, and I saw that they were all looking at me with a different eye.

Argument in the case of Queen vs. John Trumble was heard this morning by Judge Laxer, who reserved judgment till to-morrow. The case of the son has not yet been heard.

Haines & Lockett's new spring stock is now coming in in large quantities. It will be the best of the most complete stock they have ever shown. Mr. Lockett spent nearly three weeks among the shoe factories, carefully selecting and ordering the goods to be made especially for them, of solid material, without shoddy. Their store will be decidedly the place to buy shoes in this spring and summer.

ARCHBISHOP CLEARY DEAD

He Died This Forenoon—A Sketch of His Career.

A dispatch from Kingston this afternoon stated that Archbishop Cleary was dead. The deceased prelate had been in poor health for some months, and his death had been hourly expected for several days. Rev. Monsignor Farrelly, of this city, was at his bedside when he died.

James Vincent Cleary, D.D., Archbishop of Kingston, was born in Dungarvan, a seaport town in the County of Waterford, Ireland, on September 15, 1828. He received his education in the Royal College of Maynooth, near Dublin. After being ordained as a priest he spent two years in the University of Salamanca, Spain, then being called home to occupy the chair of dogmatic theology in St. John's College, Waterford, and in 1873 he was elevated to the Presidency of the College. Three years later he was promoted to the living of Dungarvan, his native parish, where he subsequently took an active interest in politics, and with the united action of his parish succeeded in electing the national candidate. In 1880 he received an order from the Holy See appointing him Bishop of Kingston. On the ground of ill health he appealed against the order, but to no avail, so that after consecration at Rome he came to his charge, where he was given a magnificent reception.

THE CONTEST.

"The Flaneur," in Mail and Empire, Gives His Ideas of the Coming Election.

I seldom indulge in prophecy, and certainly shall not attempt to do so on this occasion. This is the first time an election has been called here on a purely manhood suffrage basis, and with a large new element all our ordinary means of estimate are upset. Of course I wish the present Provincial Government turned out; I am quite convinced it is time for a change, and that in the circumstances—it is impossible to make a change for the worse. The entire official service of the province, from the highest to the humblest official, is in the hands of various untried men; not only are all the brothers, sisters, uncles, and aunts of the present Government, but also the cousins of the present Government, and the cousins of the cousins are always gathered round in force to the support of the Government.

While not desiring for one moment to disturb the friendly relations of the birds who in their little nests are in the midst of their domestic life, I am interested in the welfare of the poor devil who is to be elected to the Provincial Treasury, and I really think that after a quarter of a century of such good business management, the Government should be given a rest to enable them to attend a little to home affairs and spend some of the money they have of course accumulated.

This is, it is largely in the best interests of the present holders of office, I wish to see them given a chance of a well earned rest. There must be much monotony in a career of a century of office, and after March the 31st, if things eventuate as it is my sincere wish that Mr. and Mrs. Hardy and his colleagues find the time to spend a little in gratitude to the people, and while waiting for the glad and the green of fellowship, will with care in their eyes exclaim, "Thank you, old fellow! You gave good advice."

The Raw Cutting Winds

Bringing to the surface every latent pain. Gout, rheumatism, neuralgia, headache, and complaints of a similar character hold sway at this season of the year amongst human beings. The cause is not far to seek. The most powerful and most certain pain cure is Nerville. Nothing equals Nerville for relieving the sufferer. Nerville is beyond comparison the grandest discovery for the relief of pain offered to the public.

Belleville Beaten.

A team from the Belleville Gun Club drove to Stirling yesterday to shoot the return match with the Club of that village. The weather was pleasant and all the conditions for the sport favorable. Several of the best shots of the local team were unable to go and they did not do as well as on previous occasions. The match was a close one, the Belleville team scoring 125 and Belleville got 113. Berkeley of Stirling, got 29, the highest mark of the match, and Berkeley got 19, while H. Day, of the local team, broke 18. The visitors were entertained to a splendid dinner at the Stirling House.

The Art Loan.

The ladies of Bridge St. church will hold an Art Loan exhibition on Thursday and Friday in the Sunday School rooms from three to six o'clock in the afternoon and 8 o'clock in the evening. Orchestra Thursday; Graphophone Friday. A number of interesting relics and curios will be on exhibition. Admission 10 cents. 3c

Battalion Notes

Surgeon-Lieut. Yeomans will lecture to-morrow evening at the armories on "First Aid to the Wounded," giving practical illustrations of bandaging, etc.

Capt. Matheson, teller of the Merchants' Bank, who for the past four years has been connected with the Governor-General's Body Guards, Ottawa, will be transferred to the 15th and will take command of No. 3 Company, vice Walmsley, resigned.

It is expected that two or three appointments in the 15th will be gazetted soon.

Two Warnings.

Loosing flesh is one and hacking cough is another. If they come together the warning is a loud and clear one. Scott's Emulsion does some of its best work in just these cases. It prevents consumption.

Is It So?
To the Editor of the INTELLIGENCER.

I noticed an item in your paper yesterday in which you say that at a caucus of the Grit party held on Saturday last in Belleville the question of withdrawing Mr. Russell from the contest in Hastings and the substitution of a Hunterford man was decided on the ground that it was not advisable to swap horses while crossing a stream.

This did seem to me, an unsophisticated politician, as a canard, but upon enquiry, of the knowing ones, I found it to be true, and further that Mr. Russell told his friends that he could not carry a majority in Hastings.

This is honest, as I should be from an ex-clergyman or one who was educated for that profession, as I have heard Mr. Russell was. If so, why has he dropped the pretence of Rev. I. Is he following the example set by the Rev. Dr. Dewar, who is now known only as "Dr."

These kind of clergymen are not likely to do much in the way of charity, if they are not in the governing of the country. There are now two Presbyterian clergymen in the House of Commons, and both are notable failures, as was the Rev. William Lyon, who formerly represented Hastings in the House of Commons.

Let us ask a question. What would the Grit hawks say if a Roman Catholic priest were to ask the votes of the electors? Yet have they not the same right?

Yours,
A SURPRISED MAN.

Tasteless Cod Liver Oil

The great benefit derived from the use of Cod Liver Oil is now being recognized by leading physicians the world over, but the great difficulty has been to combine in such a way as to be acceptable to delicate stomachs.

Wampole's tasteless Cod Liver Oil contains all the medical properties of the oil chemically extracted, while the fatty matter (which is also) is rejected. Thus combined with the extract of wild cherry and compound syrup of hypophosphites without doubt make one of the most reliable preparations for all cases of lung trouble, nervous and general debility.

Price in pint bottles, $1.00; six bottles for $5.00.—ALEX. LEAD.

With Loaded Dice.

When nearly all the officials from the end of the province to the other end appointed by a central government, in the ranks of one party, that party has in its hands the power of the public good.

In England public opinion would not permit the Government to do this. In England a Government is nearly always defeated at a general election. In Ontario the Government is nearly always re-elected.

What we should have is fair play and no favor, we cannot have fair play when the party in power plays with loaded dice.—Weekly Sun.

Mrs. Carman Ill.

THEN AND NOW.

Sir John Carling, the only surviving member of the Sandfield MacDonald Administration, remarks that the Hamilton Spectator, has been much amused at the statement recently made by the Grit Ministers to the effect that the Sandfield MacDonald Government was able to show a surplus because it did nothing for the province. Sir John points out that this newly discovered "argument" is very far from the fact. During the period of this Administration the Government House was built, the Parliament Building was restored and returned, Toronto Asylum was enlarged, nine bridges were built, the London Asylum, Belleville Asylum and Dunlop Asylum, and the Toronto Asylum, and buildings were erected. Six hundred acres of land was bought at Mimico to establish an Experimental Farm there, the Mechanics' Institute building at Toronto was purchased and converted into a School of Technology, the site of the Central Prison was bought and the building commenced, aid was given to railways, immigration and the drainage of lands, money was spent on the improvement of inland navigation, and for the opening up of the Muskoka, Algoma and Northern districts, grants were made to agricultural societies, mechanics' institutes, provincial exhibitions, fruit, where hospitals and charities. Yet cash surplus Government raised it left a deficit of $1,544,000. This was largely because it was keeping up the province of political friends.

For the benefit of Sir John also points out.

Increase in the list of Old Age Pensions has been made since 1871. These figures are:

ONTARIO'S NEXT PREMIER.
Mr. Whitney is a man of charming manner, and is said to be one of the most voracious readers in Eastern Ontario. His wide literary tastes are apparent in his speeches.—The Globe, Dec. 4th, 1897.

Your Vote and Influence Requested for

M. B. MORRISON,
Conservative Candidate for West Hastings.

SNAP SHOTS AT TIMELY TOPICS.
—Bill's $1000 and Bill's Bleeker go hand in hand.
—"Bleeker and Bleeker!" is the Grit's cry in West Hastings.

—Every day the feeling becomes more prevalent that it is time for a change.
—Morrison's canvasser assure him that his majority will be a substantial one on March 1st.

BLEEKER'S MOTTO—Road work for Tories at election time. After election, road work for Grits.

—Mark your ballot opposite M. B. Morrison's name on the blue line. Don't make your cross on the red line.

—The fact that W. H. Biggar thought it worth while to float round Belleville with Mr. Hy. Bleeker is proof that the latter is not going it alone.

—Yes! The Mail said in 1890 that the finances appeared to be all right. But we are in 1898 now and they are all wrong. We have 7,133 dollars, a deficit of $400,000 a year, a depleted timber reserve, and a debt of five millions.—Mail and Empire.

—A change: an audit; reform; progress; no more Michigan New Jersey, or New York; a Government independent of Ottawa; a province protected from assaults from outside; a free people uninfected by the machine. This is what Mr. Whitney will give us.—Mail and Empire.

—Men who get less than two dollars a day will be glad to have the assurance of the Hon. G. W. Ross, whose income is over $11 a day, that school books are not too dear. They are not too dear for him.

—"So long as we have the party system we must have two parties, and to keep them both in a healthy and effective state they ought to take turns in office. If one is forever to monopolize power and patronage, irresponsibility and corruption are pretty sure to set in."—Toronto Weekly Sun (Patron).

—A short time ago it was, according to the Grit party, the unpardonable political sin for Dominion Ministers to notice even a Provincial candidate—now they are into it over their ears. Sir Wilfrid and the rest of them. They have a peculiar habit—peculiar to themselves of applauding to-day everything they condemned yesterday.

BETTER LET HIM GO.
It is reported from Ottawa that there is a split in the Cabinet over the Yukon tramway job, and that Mr. Sifton threatens to resign unless the other Ministers accede to his views.

If Sir Wilfrid Laurier wishes to do justice to Canada and prevent a gigantic wrong, he will allow his bumptious Minister of the Interior to go.

The delegates from this city at the Epworth League Convention at Peterborough this week are Miss Florence Laidlaw, Rev. H. Hill and Mr. M. B. Jamieson.

Bleeker is passing in Sidney as a pro Grit-Tory candidate. This is too rich! Bleeker, you can't win!

The betting is even all over the country that Mr. Whitney will be Premier.—World. Yes, but on individual majorities no Grit will be here unless given big odds. This is right, as everything is almost certain to go Conservative in this locality.

A favorite assertion of the Grits is that Mr. Whitney is not a sufficiency of able men behind him to fill the Cabinet offices. It is only necessary, in order to show the fallacy of this contention, to mention the names of Messrs. Martin, Foy, Matheson, Crossland, St. John, Macmillan, Smythe and Hoyle.

The low-down Bleeker organ sneers at the Intelligencer for giving its candidate the benefit of a doubt as to his statement at the convention concerning his inability to carry the riding. The "yellow fellow" would not do so. His practice is to tell a lie deliberately and stick to it.

A veritable tidal wave is advancing on the Provincial Liberals. As March 1 approaches it becomes more evident that an intense and widespread feeling of dissatisfaction has taken possession of the people in opposition to the close corporation that has had charge of Ontario's finances for a quarter of a century. On general principles, it is time we had a change in the Government of this province.—World.

Bleeker's bribery was reiterated and justified once more by his low-down organ last night. Mr. Bleeker and the organ belong to that party which, in 1874, professed that they had taken office "to raise again the standard of public morality," but has "brooded down from precedent to precedent," to the "old justice of God," the school book robbery under Ross, the Englewood deal and the Colonization Road robbery under Gibson, the secret compact with the lumbermen of Michigan made by the Hardy Government, the Drummond County Railway deal of Blair and Tarte, the Nicholson bribery talk of Laurier, and the Stikine Railway job of Sifton. The time for a change in Ontario is at hand. March 1st is the date set for it.

It was said by members of the Opposition that there was no surplus. They could say this when stamping the country, but they could not say it on the floor of the House, because their challenge would be taken up.

The foregoing is from the low-down organ's report of Mr. Bleeker's speech at the nomination. The organ boasts of Mr. Bleeker's truthfulness, but in the foregoing there is a direct untruth, whether by assertion or insinuation. The Conservatives did say on the floor of the House that there was no surplus, and they did prove that, taking total liabilities into account, there is a deficit of about $5,000,000. Can Mr. Bleeker have misread the long debate; did he boldly mistake the facts; or did his yellow organ misrepresent him, as it has done nearly all others to whom it has referred during the campaign?

If Ontario has no surplus, whence does she get nearly a quarter of a million a year in interest?

She gets it from trust funds which are held by the Dominion Government in perpetuity. The same funds existed when that honest man, John Sandfield McDonald, was in power, and on leaving office he left a surplus of $3,810,000 in cash in the Treasury, in addition to the trust funds, and that $3,810,000 was spent and a debt of about $5,000,000 incurred by the Grit party. John Sandfield's Government received $358,453 in interest yearly from the Dominion on account of the trust funds, whereas the Grits received in 1895 only $290,554. From all sources, on interest account. Besides which, the annual subsidy to the Province granted by the Dominion has been considerably increased since Sandfield McDonald's Government went out of power.

MINING IN KALADAR

A Company Formed at Kingston, Capitalized at $400,000, Will Carry on Operations.—The Property Showing Promising Results.

Mr. A. F. Hume, promoter of the Kaladar and Angleson Mining and Development Co., was in town a short time ago and purchased the Jackson property, which was sold by auction and on which, it is stated, there are vast mineral deposits.

The company owns about 800 acres in Kaladar, Angleson and Hume, which has given very promising results. Assays made at the School of Mines show up to $7.50 per ton at the top and $32.00 at the bottom of a forty foot shaft. The whole property has been thoroughly inspected and pronounced very valuable. The company has capitalized at $400,000 in shares of $1 each and it is the intention of the company to offer about 25,000 shares at a liberal discount for developing purposes and paying off options.

The promoters of the company are Jas. Munro, S. Harkness, J. A. McGowan and John Bradin, of Kingston; E. Koster, of New York; and John R. Scott and H. F. Perry, of Nanapan. The latter gentleman will act as solicitor for the company.

$200,000 For the Fight.
How can the Hardy-Gibson Government continue to boast of its clean administration in the face of the following facts:

A well-known Hamiltonian was in London on Wednesday, and there met the agent of a Michigan lumber firm. The conversation naturally at once drifted into politics, and during the course the Michigan man remarked: "You may talk as you like about politics being rotten in the United States, but you Canadians can go on and brag every time." The Hamiltonian took objection to the statement, but was silenced when the Michigan agent went on to say that he knew for a fact that the Hardy-Gibson Government had paid $150,000 as campaign funds in the last Dominion struggle, but were spending $200,000 to bring the Hardy Government and its anti-Canadian log policy back to power again.—Toronto World.

The Probable Yukon Gold Output of 1898.
The predictions for the receipts from the Upper Yukon in 1898 are guesswork, although the latest returned miners make it appear that they will be over $20,000,000. But if it is $20,000,000, the most conservative estimate now offered, it will be wonderful, and will mean that with all the mining hands now there and the hundred thousand or more who go in 1898, the yield for 1898 will approximate $40,000,000. After that it depends on transportation facilities to get the gold and machinery into the country to multiply the placer yields, and a few years more will probably see the Yukon ranges the steady crumpling of ore by steam-powered mills and the world's gold supply.

BOTH SIDES ARE PREPARING

War Cloud is Now Hovering Over the Island of Cuba.

United States Very Near Getting Guns and Other War Material Out, and the Spaniards Are Not Idle. Squadron to Sail for Cuba.—"We Must Prepare for War," says an Influential Paper of Madrid.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The following official bulletin was sent out from the War Department yesterday: "Late reports from Havana have not changed in any degree the views of the high officials of the Government as to the probability of the outbreak of a disquieting nature. It has been received at the War Department is important news of any character expected until the court of enquiry shall have completed its investigation and submitted its report."

What the President Said.
St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 25.—General William H. Taft, of Belleville, who was in command of the regiment in which President McKinley served during the civil war, and who was recently appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the Southern Illinois district, returned from Washington yesterday. The General, who is a personal friend of President McKinley, said that while at the capital he discussed the National Revenue and its possible results with the Chief Executive.

"The President stated to me," said the General, "that he was waiting for a complete report of the Naval Board of Enquiry, and that should it report that the United States Navy was in a state of such a condition that it was unable to meet the requirements of the Government, he was prepared to act at once, and in a manner which would secure the approval of every loyal American citizen."

Monitor Terror Sent to Sea.
Norfolk, Feb. 25.—The monitor Terror left Norfolk at 10.15 a.m. yesterday on her way to sea under sealed orders. Her destination, however, is not known, and she is expected to be in the Gulf of Mexico, and thousands witnessed it.

Mr. Boutwell Talks Sense.
Washington, D.C., Feb. 25.—Representative Boutwell, Chairman of the Committee on Naval Affairs, referring to the rumors of a treaty in connection with the Maine disaster, said yesterday:

"I feel that any man, who, by spoken or written statements, adds a spark to the flame of public sentiment at this juncture, is as guilty as the man who would touch the match of a powder keg, or who would set a vessel. This is a time for the calmest judgment, instead of unguarded talk, wholly without basis of established fact, of a war which would entail the loss of thousands of our people."

Torpedo Boat Sent Out.
Elizabeth, N.J., Feb. 25.—The submarine torpedo boat Holland started shortly after noon yesterday on her initial trial trip. She was in tow of the tug boat Erie, and was in the direction of Fort Amby. The ultimate destination of the torpedo boat is supposed to be Sandy Hook, where it was said the trial trip would take place. The Erie is said to have supplied the torpedo boat with fuel for the use of the Holland. It is expected the latter will be away from Nixon's wharves, and the Holland will be in the harbor, containing eight officers sent to headquarters by Chief of Police McCullough.

SOME WAR TALK.
Buckeye Statesmen Want to Drive the Hated Spaniards Out of Cuba.
Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 25.—Senator Flek (Democrat) yesterday introduced a resolution in the Senate setting forth that the preponderance of evidence shows that the territory of Maine was blown up by Spaniards, and expressing to the Ohio Representatives and United States Senators and Congressmen the sentiment of the people of Ohio that the time for interference on behalf of Cuba has come. The resolution seeks to pledge the Administration unqualified support, with men and money, to accomplish the desired ends, be the consequences what they may. It is well to be that this nation be droned with blood and her treasury poured out that the hated Spaniards may be driven from the island.

The resolution was made a special order for next Tuesday.

Axis in War.
Cleveland, Feb. 25.—In a speech delivered last night before the Western Reserve Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, H. A. Axline, Adjutant-General of Ohio, who was Adjutant-General of the State when McKinley was Governor, declared that if he could have his way he would move the Axis to the ground and annihilate the Axis. He said that the Axis was the Axis of the Axis, and he would move the Axis to the ground and annihilate the Axis.

SPAIN IS NOT IDLE.
Arranging to Send a Squadron to Cuba.—The Spanish Government is preparing to send a squadron of ships to Cuba, and the United States Government is preparing to send a squadron of ships to Cuba.

New York, Feb. 25.—A dispatch to the World from Madrid says: The Queen invited to lunch with the royal family at the Alcazar, the Count of Barcelona, and also at Porto Rico before reaching Cuba. It is officially announced that there are 100,000 Spanish troops in Cuba, and 100,000 Spanish troops in Cuba.

After lunch the Queen talked a long time with Villamil, enquiring into all the details of the contemplated cruise. He left last night for Cuba, where he will spend three days to complete the preparations for departure.

The squadron will be composed of three torpedo destroyers, the Platon, the Torpedo, and the Puerco, and the torpedo vessels Roca, Alcazar and Azor. These craft will be accompanied by the steamer City of Guayaquil, conveying coal and provisions. The vessels will sail for the Canary Islands, and also at Porto Rico before reaching Cuba. It is officially announced that there are 100,000 Spanish troops in Cuba, and 100,000 Spanish troops in Cuba.

DIED IN ENGLAND.

An Old Resident of Belleville Passes Away in His Native Land.

Mr. Robert Oliphant received a letter from Hull, England, this morning conveying the sad intelligence that Mr. James Hall, formerly of this city had died there on Feb. 4th. Mr. and Mrs. Hall left Belleville for their native land in December and reached Hull on December 24th. They had hoped that the change would benefit Mr. Hall's health, but he was taken to his bed on January 27th and rapidly sank.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall came to Canada about twenty years ago and lived in this city about sixteen years. He conducted a butcher shop on West Bridge St. He was 64 years of age and leaves only his wife to mourn his loss. Mr. Hall was member of Oxford Lodge, Sons of England, in which he carried $10,000 insurance on his life, and was a staunch Conservative. Many friends in this city will regret to learn of his demise.

Haines & Lockett's new spring stock is now coming in in large quantities. It will be by far the most complete stock they have ever shown. Mr. Lockett spent nearly three weeks among the shoe factories, carefully selecting and ordering the best to be made especially for them, of solid leather, without shoddy. Their store will be decidedly the place to buy shoes at this spring and summer.

The information above given comes from an honest Reformer, to whom the plot was released. This gentleman was so disgusted by the revelation that he has determined to vote for Mr. Stokes.

What was done then, it is alleged, is to be repeated on Tuesday next.

Conservatives, be on the alert, make a note of every attempt at fraud, and punishment will follow.

SPRAGUE DRIVEN OUT OF THE FIELD.

A telegram from Sprague announces the retirement of Mr. Sprague, the Liberal candidate, leaving the field to the Patron candidate, Mr. Caven.

This maneuvering has been going on for some time, at which honest Liberals express disgust, and will, we have reason to believe, resent it by not voting, or marking their ballots for Dempsey. The manipulators of the Grit party treat their friends as fools. They order them to go and come as they please, and if they do not obey, read them out. Independent men should tolerate this no longer.

He has the reputation of being the greatest living bigamist and horse thief in Canada.

Grit Plot

TO STEAL THE ELECTION IN EAST HASTINGS.

The Conservatives of this County will remember the attempt made eight years ago to defraud the electors of East Hastings out of their legitimately elected representative by a system of ballot box stuffing and fraudulent ballots.

This game is again, we have good authority for stating, to be attempted and has already been rehearsed by the schemers.

It has transpired that a plan has been devised by which a manipulation of the ballots is to take place and the ballot boxes so arranged as to prevent the electors from seeing what is done or how their ballots are deposited, as was the case at the election to which we have referred.

No elector should allow his ballot to pass out of his hands until handed to the Returning Officer, nor should he leave the poll until he sees the ballot deposited in the ballot box; and no agent or scrutineer of the Conservative party should leave his post for a moment.

It must not be forgotten that, at the former election in Thurlow, affidavits were made by electors who voted Conservative, showing that more votes were polled than appeared in the ballot box when counted.

What was done then, it is alleged, is to be repeated on Tuesday next.

Conservatives, be on the alert, make a note of every attempt at fraud, and punishment will follow.

THE FINAL RALLY.

Let There be a Good Turn-out on Monday Night.

Mr. Morrison's Central and Ward Committees will meet on Monday night, in order to complete the work preliminary to the polling of the votes on the following day.

The Chairman for every polling subdivision will do his best to get a full report of the canvass, so that an accurate forecast may be made up to the last hour possible before the day of battle dawns.

Following the work of the evening, Sir Mackenzie Bowell and other gentlemen will address the audience.

All supporters of Mr. Morrison are cordially invited to attend.

Bargain Lot of Cheap Pants.

Just before the arrival of spring clothing, the Oak Hall got carefully through the stock looking for odds and ends to clear. We have discovered a lot of odd pants, sizes 30 to 42, about 100 pairs in all, prices run $1.50 to $2.00, and we will clear the lot out at $1.00 per pair. First choice in this lot will be worth something to you.

Campaign Notes

A great rally of the Conservatives of Trenton and S. C. was held in the opera house, Trenton, last evening. The building was packed to the doors and the gathering was the most enthusiastic yet held there. Mr. Morrison had challenged Mr. Bleecker to present to back up certain statements made by Mr. W. H. Bigger recently in Trenton, but where Mr. Bleecker seemed to have no more to say, Mr. Morrison was addressed by Messrs O. W. Outram, P. J. O'Rourke, H. Corby, M. P. J. W. Johnson, M. B. Morrison and W. B. Northrup. Mr. A. A. Abbott occupied the chair.

The neighborhood of which Sidney Town Hall is situated has always been a Grit stronghold, but the more hold there last evening in the interest of Mr. Morrison was an evidence that the Conservatives will hold the Grit level there, if not get a majority. The hall was filled and Mr. Thos. Ketcheson occupied the chair. Stirring addresses were made by R. J. Graham, N. B. Falkner, R. C. Hulse and W. C. Miles.

Mr. Morrison's supporters will hold a meeting at Gilbert's School house, in Sidney, this evening. It will be addressed by Messrs H. Corby, M. P. J. W. Johnson, R. C. Hulse and W. C. Miles.

Mr. J. W. Johnson and Mr. W. C. Miles went to Clinton this afternoon, where they will speak this evening for Mr. Dempsey.

A rousing meeting was held in the Foster Ward committee rooms last evening by the Conservatives. Morrison will get a good hearing there, and it is likely that they will have to stand by him.

Only one more day for work. See that it is profitably employed.

A large enthusiastic meeting was held in the Harbison's cooper shop, Murray Ward, last evening. Addresses were made by some leading workers.

From the Klondike Party.

The following paragraphs concerning the Klondike party will be of interest.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Feb. 17, '98.

Dear Mr. Mahan—Ed. and his party got away from here by last night's boat, and all in good health and spirits. It is likely they will have to land at Skagway instead of Wrangell, as they intended, but they were not sure which point it would be when they left.

R. S. SILEN.

A letter was received from Mr. J. C. Keith this morning, stating he was in very good health and would start for the Klondike next week with a party of friends, and all the reports about his health were false.

Dangers of Delay.

If we were allowed to look in the future and see the fatal consequences that follow a neglected cold, how differently would our course be; could we realize our danger, how speedily we would seek a cure. But with many it is only when the monster disease has fastened its fangs upon its victim, that it awakes to its peril. What follows a neglected cold? It is the disease of the throat and lungs, bronchitis, asthma, consumption, and many other diseases of like nature. It is worse than madness to neglect a cold, and it is fully not to have some good remedy available for its frequent complaint. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs, is Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Cough Syrup. This medicine is composed of several natural herbs, which exert a most powerful influence in curing consumption and other diseases of the lungs and chest. It is free and easy expectoration, soothes irritation and drives the disease from the system.

It is easier to be good than great—there is less opposition.

At Death's Door—Dyspepsia Conquered.—A Great Medical Triumph.—Gentlemen, my medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Dye for Dyspepsia. My case was one of the worst of its kind. For three years I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 210 to 110 lbs. All the food I took for thirteen months previous to my taking this Vegetable Dye consisted of milk. I am now entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, eat all my food with a keen relish and feel like a new man. I have sold thirty dozen Vegetable Dyes since I am cured, as I am well-known, and people in this section know how long I was sick. I thought I could not possibly be cured. There are cases to try this medicine. It certainly saved my life. I am glad to recover when I first commenced using it. I am not exaggerating any. I am glad to be able to contribute this testimonial and trust it may be the means of convincing others of its merit. A certain cure for Dyspepsia. (Signed) Jean Valcourt, General Merchant, Wotton, P. Q.

The sun shines for all, but the sleeping car porter does not for a quarter. Totally Deaf.—Mr. S. E. Crandell, Port Perry, writes:—"I contracted a severe cold last winter which resulted in my becoming totally deaf in one ear and partially in the other. After trying various remedies, and consulting several doctors, without obtaining any relief, I was advised to try Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. I warmed the Oil and poured a little into my ear, and before one-half bottle was used my hearing was completely restored. I have heard of other cases of deafness being cured by the use of this medicine."

Poems often come home to roost—if accompanied by a return of colds. Dogs are annually taxed two dollar each in Paris; but pups are exempt until they are weaned.

Cholera morbus, cramps and kindred complaints annually make their appearance at the same time as the hot weather, green fruit, cucumbers, melons, etc., and many people are debilitated from eating these tempting fruits, but they need not abstain if they have Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, and take a certain cure for Cholera, cramps and cholera in a remarkable manner, and is sure to check every disturbance.

A man has a rattling old time when he throws dice for the drinks. How to Cure Headache.—Some people suffer untold misery day after day with headache. There is rest neither day or night until the nerves are all unstrung. The cause is generally indigestion, stomach, and a cure can be effected by using Dr. Kellogg's Vegetable Pills, containing Mandarin and Dandelion. Mr. Finley Ward, Lyndhurst, P. Q., writes: "I find Parmentier's Pills a first-class article for Bilious Headache."

Love and war go hand in hand. Even the tin of battle has a sort of engagement. The proprietors of Parmentier's Pills are constant readers letters similar to the following, which were sent to Mr. John A. Bean, Waterloo, Ont., writes: "I have used your medicine for several years. Parmentier's Pills for dyspepsia or Liver and Kidney Complaints. The relief experienced after using them was wonderful. I am a first-class article for Bilious Headache."

THE LEOPERS' GUEST.

A Story of the Princess.

By MAX PENNIMTON.

Copyright, 1898.

had not put his dreadful seal upon me; and when I saw a pair of exquisitely white arms to embrace me, I knew that I was to answer her I did not know.

"See! listen," said I at last, "there is but one word."

"I will ride on the saddle before you," she protested, and giving me the reins, she sprang up suddenly from the ground and was resting in my arms.

An argument pressed home like this was irresistible. I gave the reins to her and she began to descend the steps to the back. But at the last posting station, where I left to secure another horse, she rewarded me richly for my pains.

For when I came out of the post house she had ridden off with my horse. I did not doubt that her destination was my own.

I arrived at Sandhurst on the eve of the following day, thinking it imprudent to make known to the Duke the truth of the whole circumstances attending the kidnapping of his house. With this intention I descended at the principal inn, La Fontaine de the Duke's house. I was met by the Duke's valet, who told me that the Duke was in the study, and that I might go in to see him.

I went in, and found the Duke sitting at his desk, writing. He looked up at me, and said, "What is it, my friend?"

"I have a story to tell you, my lord," I said, and then I told him the whole of the adventure.

DARING ATTEMPT TO KILL KING GEORGE.

Narrow Escape of the Occupant of the Throne of Greece.

His Majesty was driving with Princess Maria, when two assassins with Rifles Opened Fire at a Close Distance—Royal Personage Escaped, But a Coachman was Shot in the Arm—The King Shielded His Daughter—Cable News.

Athens, Feb. 28.—An unsuccessful attempt was made Saturday to assassinate King George of Greece.

The King was returning from Phalaris at 6 o'clock in the evening in a landau, accompanied by the Princess Maria, when two men who were hidden in a ditch alongside the road, opened fire on the royal party.

The first shot missed, but the second wounded a footman in the arm. The coachman dropped away at a gallop, the royal party whirled on by, and the assassins fled.

The assassins fired seven more shots at the King, but the man to the right of the King and Princess returned to the Palace unharmed.

The King's daughter, who was in the landau, was dressed in grey clothing and his Majesty declares that he could easily have killed her.

The news of the attempt upon the King's life caused a great sensation.
